SEEK FACTOR THAT WON TOGA RACE FOR VARE

More Than Prohibition Issue at Stake in Republican Primary

FAVORITE OF BIG BUSINESS

Will Support Administration Despite Mellon's Plea for Pepper

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1926 by Post Pub. Co.
Washington — The wish is often the father to the thought in politics and that's why every conceivable inference is being drawn from the Republican primary election in Pennsylvania. While the "wet" and "dry" issue played a part there is likely to be a search beyond the prohibition issue to find out why Representative Vane won the race.

For if prohibition was a factor, the question is asked how was it that the combined vote of Messrs. Pepper and Pinchot—both of them dries—was much greater than the vote for Vane. There is no doubt that considerable wet sentiment exists in Pennsylvania, particularly in Philadelphia and that Mr. Vane's political organization used it to the utmost. But if Governor Pinchot had withdrawn from the race and the fight were between Senator Pepper and Mr. Vane would the result have been the same? In other words would the rural districts and those precincts outside of Philadelphia which supported Governor Pinchot have given their vote to a pronounced wet from Philadelphia? The fact that there are questions like these to be asked deprives the Pennsylvania primary of a clear-cut national significance.

VARE WILL SUPPORT CAL
As for the reputation of the administration especially since Secretary Mellon pleaded for Senator Pepper, the result of the election has overtaken the fact that Vane is a national administration man. For instance, Mr. Vane will be as regular and staunch a supporter of President Coolidge as any Republican senator from Pennsylvania. Mr. Coolidge will take him into his political household just as he has already taken Frank Smith of Illinois into the Republican primary against Senator McKinley. To remove any doubts, Mr. Smith has been invited to the White House as the guest of the president. A similar invitation is prospect for Mr. Vane.

When Mr. Vane appeared for support for Mr. Pepper he was really trying to line up those big business organizations which had decided to cast their lot with Mr. Vane.

It is hinted for example, that big business in the Keystone state has been feeling the lack of a "flexible" man since the death of Senator Penrose. Although Senator Pepper had a powerful influence in Washington, he was not one-two-three with the state political forces in Harrisburg. The strength of Mr. Penrose was that he handled affairs at Harrisburg at the same time as he spent most of his time in Philadelphia running the Republican machine's operations as they affected both the state and the national capital.

BIG BUSINESS FAVORED VARE
The big business interests have been somewhat baffled by the Pinchot administration at Harrisburg. The story brought here is that they saw in a triumph of Mr. Vane an opportunity to put into office a state ticket in harmony with the senatorial ticket and to represent the state organization. Mr. Vane answers at least the question "who will succeed Penrose in Pennsylvania?" He is a political leader of resourcefulness and power, and his area of influence will extend beyond Harrisburg and Washington to the national political conventions for he is the type of leader who knows how to swing a convention in alliance with the political leaders of nearby states. His advocacy of a modification of the Volstead law will be heard from when the next Republican national platform is drafted. And incidentally not a bit of this will antagonize Secretary Mellon who has never had any love for the Pinchot regime in Pennsylvania or the dry law either.

Paris — Odette Laguerre Rife was given a divorce Friday from Raymond Rife of Rockford, Ill.

HIS HONOR IN HIS NEW KELLY

MAYOR ALBERT C. RULE SETS STYLE PACE FOR CITY BY INVESTING IN A STRAW HAT AND ISSUING FORMAL EDICT NAMING SATURDAY AS OFFICIAL OPENING OF STRAW HAT SEASON.

Mayor Opens Straw Hat Season With City Edict

Rain or shine, blizzard or spring zephyrs, the straw hat will be all the mode tomorrow. No less an authority than Albert C. Rule, mayor of Appleton, has so ordered and what he says goes in these precincts.

Boistered by the power and majesty of the position he holds in our up-to-date and progressive city, His Honor Friday affixed his signature to a proclamation to all and sundry that Saturday, May 22, is the official opening of the straw hat season in Appleton.

And to prove he is right His Honor went out and invested in a new straw hat which he proposes to sport for the edification of the people tomorrow. The picture above is conclusive proof that the mayor means what he says.

His honor intimated in his edict that the felt hat will be passe in these parts after tonight and he suggested that it be discarded for the more sprightly straw.

Here is his proclamation: "The City of Appleton, during the past week, has undergone a transformation which will for some time to come reflect itself in the lives of our citizens. With the help of nature, the city has, climatically speaking, thrown off the drab, colorless trappings of winter and blossomed forth in the beauty of spring.

In order that all Appleton may make the momentous change at the same time, I hereby proclaim May 22nd to be Straw Hat Day, and urge that on that day the unsightly felt be cast into the discard, to be replaced in WITNESS WHEREOF, I have caused the Great Seal of the City of Appleton to be affixed hereto this 21st day of May, 1926.

Signed: Albert C. Rule, Mayor.

FOND DU LAC DOCTOR IS IN TRAIN WRECK

Chicago — (AP) — A fast Chicago and Northwestern passenger train, traveling at about 40 miles an hour, ran into an open switch in Wilmette Friday crashing into a freight train and injuring several passengers.

Three coaches of the passenger train, Chicago bound train No. 8, were derailed and the engine and tender were overturned. The baggage car was wrecked. No one was killed.

Among the injured were Engineer William R. Kennedy, 56, Chicago, of the passenger train, suffering from shock, cuts and bruises; Fireman Elmer C. Mark, Milwaukee, cuts and contusions of head; Dr. Henry E. Zwolig, Fond du Lac, was a passenger on the wrecked train and gave aid to the injured passengers.

Blame Chicago Suburb Vice To Rum Runners

Chicago — (AP) — Forest view, a little suburb, incorporated 18 months ago and dedicated to the memory of World War dead, is now called "Caponeville" by Chicago police who believe control of the village was held by "Scar Face Al" Capone sought for the slaying of Assistant States Attorney McSwiggin.

Investigation by police has revealed that Capone, alleged beer gang leader and some of his companions moved into the village and soon were in power. Of late the village apparently has been devoted to vice, gambling and illicit manufacture of liquor. Deputy Detective Chief Stege declared.

POLICE CHIEF IS EX-CONVICT
The village chief of police, authorities found, is Frank "Porky" Dillon, pardoned convict, and the president of the village board of trustees lives in Chicago. Supposedly have been used for them to appear before the special crime grand jury investigating the town.

DISAGREE ON LENROOT MILK IMPORT BILL

New England Milk Producers Hold Conflicting Views on Measure

Washington, D. C. — (AP) — A conflicting New England view of the Lenroot bill to make imported milk and cream conform to the same standard imposed on American dairies was presented Thursday to the senate agriculture committee.

Wesley H. Bronson, Boston representative of the New England Milk Producers association urged enactment of the measure on sanitary grounds and Charles W. Holman, secretary of the National Milk Producers association favored it on the economic ground that imports of Canadian cream are forcing the dairy industry of New England out of business.

Cornelius A. Parker, attorney for the Boston Suburban Milk Dealers association contended, however, that the measure was not necessary.

COMPETITION UNFAIR
New England states, Bronson said, have appropriated $395,000 for the extermination of bovine tuberculosis and Canadian producers should be compelled to conform to the regulations of the community in the potential market which is most strict.

Senator Lenroot, Republican Wisconsin read a letter from Dr. Arthur W. Gilbert, Massachusetts, state commission of agriculture supporting the bill and declaring that "unfair Canadian competition is forcing the Massachusetts farmer either to reduce his herds or give them up entirely."

NAVAL REDUCTION PARLEY POSSIBLE

Japan Wants Conference With United States and Great Britain

Geneva — (AP) — A naval reduction conference by Great Britain, the United States and Japan seems among the possible eventualities of the gathering of representatives of the nations here.

The Japanese assert that they will advocate a three power conference if France and Italy adhere to their reported decision not to participate in a discussion of naval armaments except at a general disarmament conference. Japan, it is stated has abandoned its previous position and is convinced that naval affairs can be handled separately.

Dare-Devil Lives On His Nerve To Complete 102 Hour Drive Saturday

Thursday Night's Storm Adds to Difficulties in Gruelling Test

So tired and so near complete physical exhaustion that every movement of his arms and legs wracks his body with pain, Dare-Devil Joe Smith Friday afternoon went into the last and most arduous 30 hours of his 102 endurance test which will end at 8

To prevent automobiles from jamming traffic in front of the Post-Crescent office when Dare-Devil Joe Smith finishes his 102-hour drive at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, S. Appleton-st. between College-ave. and Lawrence-st. will be closed to automobiles Saturday from 5 o'clock until after the arrival of the dare-devil, Police Chief George T. Prim announced Friday.

ASWELL WANTS TO COMBINE 2 RELIEF BILLS

Democrat Proposes Using Parts of Both Farm Measures

Washington, D. C. — (AP) — A farm relief bill combining the Trenchard credit plan and the Curtis-Aswell commodity marketing proposal has been proposed by Representative Aswell, Democrat, Louisiana, and a special rule making it in order will be sought.

All three of the farm relief bills with which the house has been wrestling were finally in position Friday after a long session. Doubtless whether action on any of them would be taken before Saturday or even later.

Reading of the Haugen price stabilization bill for amendment was completed late Thursday, and the Trenchard credit plan and Curtis-Aswell commodity marketing proposal immediately were offered as substitutes under the special rule allowing this unusual procedure. This opened the way for reading of the two substitutes for amendment which will occur two or three days.

ROW OVER AMENDMENTS
The house finished amending the Haugen bill in a parliamentary wrangle that kept the chamber in an uproar.

Without a record vote the house agreed to a motion by Representative Timmer, Democrat, North Carolina, striking out the provision authorizing the president to declare an embargo on the importation of any agricultural product. It also adopted an amendment by Representative Jones, Democrat Texas, extending the proposed embargo fee on crops to the first sales of food products held in storage. At the request of Chairman Haugen of the agriculture committee, author of the bill the appropriation was reduced from $375,000,000 to $175,000,000, of this sum $75,000,000 would be used for advances to cotton growers, a like amount for stabilizing the prices of wheat, corn, cattle hogs and butter and $25,000,000 for aid to producers of other crops.

SENTENCE 17 FOR BREAKING DRY LAW

Milwaukee — (AP) — Seventeen proprietors of soft drink parlors and others were sentenced to the house of correction Friday by Judge F. A. Geiger in federal court for violating the Volstead act. Among those sentenced and their sentences are: Clyde Flynn, Reed, Ontario on six months; Louis Njefo, proprietor of a soft drink parlor at Green Bay four months; John Rodear, same, three months; John Grossen, same, six months; Herman Holts, same, six months.

tired and fretful Friday morning. He started his drive at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and has been going ever since.

But Smith says he will finish the run. He isn't talking much any more—conserving every bit of his energy for the gruelling hours ahead of him. A representative of The Post-Crescent or of the Sofa Motor Co., joint sponsors of the test, will be with Smith every hour and a doctor has been instructed to be in instant readiness to help if he should collapse.

Sager and Bronson ambulance also is ready to start in an instant if a mishap should befall the driver and arrangements have been made for the ambulance to follow Smith and his car the last 10 hours of his drive.

HARDEST TEST
This has been the hardest test Smith has ever been subjected to. The route has been particularly difficult and he has been forced to drive at rather high speed at times to maintain his schedule. Then the storm Thursday night was a particularly severe test on his nerves but he survived and Friday afternoon he was stronger than early in the morning.

Appleton-st., from W. College-ave. to W. Lawrence-st. will be closed to traffic from about 7:30 Saturday night until after Smith completes his long run. Car owners will be requested not to park their cars on the block after 6 o'clock so there will be plenty of room for the thousands of cars who will want to see Smith finish his trip and leave the city. A rack on which to drive the car so that Smith can be seen will be provided.

Smith will be placed in an ambulance immediately after his car stops and will be rushed to a quiet cot in the Aswell home where he will sleep. A doctor will be on hand to give him any assistance that he may require. Indications on Friday were that he will need some attention. The contest will close promptly at 8 o'clock. Smith won't delay ending

DISMISS WRIGHT DIVORCE CASE

Mrs. Wright Refuses Husband's Offer of $1,000 Cash and $125 a Month

Madison — (AP) — The Frank Lloyd Wright divorce suit was dismissed by Circuit Judge A. C. Hoppmann here Friday. The court granted Wright's motion asking dismissal and fixed at $1,000 cash and $125 a month the provision for Mrs. Wright's support was made by Judge Hoppmann. Three months ago, the court allowed $500 for the defense including $150 for support of Mrs. Wright pending settlement of the suit.

Court was convened at 10 a. m. Friday after a final 45 minute session brought the refusal of the plaintiff to accept her husband's offer of $1,000 cash and $125 a month. Wright's attorneys proposed the amount as their "final offer" and agreed so in an adjustment within a year should it be warranted by his financial condition.

The offer was considered inadequate by Mrs. Wright who through her attorney Frederick L. Lake, Chicago, announced it would permit only a "hand to mouth existence," while her husband could continue in luxury.

Dies By Lethal Gas For Slaying His Sweetheart

State Prison, Carson City, Nev. — (AP) — Nevada's lethal gas chamber will claim its second victim Friday when Stanko Jukich, convicted of slaying a 16 year old girl who refused to marry him, pays for his crime.

The small concrete execution chamber in the prison yard was robbed of one victim Thursday when the board of pardons commuted to life imprisonment the death sentence of John H. Randolph, Matricole Randolph made a desperate appeal for clemency after courts had refused to change his sentence. The pardon board decided Randolph's crime was not premeditated, after examining a petition signed by 65 lawyers including the district attorney and Judge

CITY, STATE OFFICERS GO ON DRY SQUAD

Coolidge Signs Order to Make Police Federal Enforcement Agents

Washington, D. C. — (AP) — Addition to the federal prohibition staff of state, county and municipal officers was made possible Friday under an executive order issued by President Coolidge.

This move, made at the request of Assistant Secretary Andrews in charge of prohibition enforcement is expected by him to augment the federal dry forces greatly.

Prohibition officials plan to place the local officers on the federal staff perhaps as dollar a year men, since they will be serving as federal officers in addition to their regular duties. While local officers in most states and cities are already cooperating with federal government in the enforcement of prohibition it was said at the treasury, Friday's action will clothe them with full federal authority and it is believed by Mr. Andrews to be a big step forward in the dry work.

How soon Mr. Andrews will take advantage of his authority and the exact extent of the scope to which he will put it has not been decided.

TO TRY PLAN IN CALIFORNIA
The plan was first suggested by the California prohibition administrator, and it is expected to be put in practice in that area first.

The order of President Coolidge reads: "In order that they may more efficiently function in the enforcement of the national prohibition act any state, county or municipal officer may be appointed as a nominal officer of compensation, as prohibition officer of the treasury department to enforce the provision of the national prohibition act and acts supplemental thereto in states and territories or local or special provisions against state officers holding office under the federal government."

FIND RUSSEL SCOTT SANE; MUST FACE JURY AGAIN

Chicago, Ill. — (AP) — Russell Scott, convicted of murder and sent to the prison for the insane, has been found sane and must face a jury again, the gallows a possibility in the background.

Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom disclosed Friday that state alienists had found Scott sane. No precedent for Scott's case has been found but under the procedure anticipated, State's Attorney Crowe will receive formal notification of the finding and then will apply for an order of court discharging Scott from the Illinois penitentiary for the criminal insane at Chester and ordering him returned here for retrial.

ADVISE DEPARTMENT TO DROP CATHART CASE

Washington, D. C. — (AP) — The department of justice has advised the labor department to drop the proceedings in New York which arose in connection with the case of Countess Cathcart who was denied entry into this country and took her case to court.

Preparations for the execution were completed Tuesday. A test of the gas chamber revealed that it worked faultlessly. Prison authorities say that Jukich will die almost instantly. A steam radiator will raise the temperature of the room to 80 degrees inuring almost instant vaporization of the death dealing hydrocyanic gas, one of the deadliest known to science. A special chair, built large to accommodate Jukich for he is a large man, has been placed in the cell. A slight hissing sound, possibly a faint odor which characterizes the gas will be Jukich's only warning of the inevitable death which will overwhelm him when the executioner turns the valve ad-

CONFESSES TO PART IN FAKE RUM ROBBERY

Former State Prohibition Director Awaits Federal Court Sentence

FORMER OSHKOSH MAN
Admits Issuing Permits for Removal of Warehouse Liquor

Milwaukee — (AP) — Clark M. Perry, former federal prohibition director for Wisconsin pleaded guilty Thursday in federal court here to charges of conspiracy in connection with the fake robbery of $100,000 worth of whiskey from warehouses at Plymouth, Wisconsin.

Perry, recently indicted by a grand jury following an investigation of the robbery which resulted in Jack Anton, president of the Plymouth Wholesale Drug Co., being sentenced to two years. An indictment also was returned against Jack Lawrence, former chief of prohibition enforcement here, in connection with the case. Lawrence who lived at Madison died a year ago. Perry was charged with having issued permits which made it impossible for Anton and other connected with his firm to remove whiskey from bond for bootlegging purposes.

STAGE FALSE ROBBERY
After a large amount of whiskey had been removed from the Plymouth warehouses a fake robbery was staged in 1923 in order to cover up shortages.

A former member of the Wisconsin assembly, came to Milwaukee from Oshkosh, Wis., a prohibition director under James A. Stone and following the resignation of Stone was made director in 1923. He resigned in November 1924.

The offense to which Perry pleaded guilty carries a maximum penalty of two years imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

The sudden change of heart on the part of Perry, who professed absolute innocence at the time the true story was returned, at the request of United States District Attorney L. Morse that sentence be deferred, coupled with pleas of guilty entered by former officials of the Chilton brewery, whose sentences also were delayed, were regarded as significant.

POINTS NEW EVIDENCE

These facts give rise to the opinion that the federal grand jury has uncovered additional evidence in connection with prohibition administration here and that other indictments may be returned to the court when the jury reports next week.

Perry, with his attorney, J. A. C. Lightner, walked into the courtroom at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and apparently through force of habit, sat in the rear of the room where he had often listened to the trials of those he brought to justice for violation of the dry laws.

The case was called by Mr. Morse and Perry walked to the front of the courtroom with Attorney Lightner.

"Mr. Perry and John Lawrence, now deceased are charged with conspiracy to withdraw from bonded warehouses liquor for beverage purposes and to sell and transport the same."

Mr. Lightner announced that a plea of guilty would be entered.

"You understand the plea?" Judge Ferdinand A. Geyer asked Mr. Perry.

"I do," was the answer of the former director.

"The plea may be entered," the court said.

Then, at the request of Mr. Morse sentence was deferred and Mr. Perry was permitted to go for the sum of $10,000 which was furnished at the time of his arrest.

This time it was different with Mr. Perry. When he was first arrested he had a prepared statement with him in which he blamed the "reformers" for his plight and asked the public to withhold judgment until a jury had established his guilt or innocence. Yesterday he had no statement prepared and refused to talk with the newspaper men and hurried from the building following his arraignment.

REPORTER TESTIFIES AGAINST EARL CARROLL

New York — (AP) — Testimony that Joyce Hawley a show girl was in a bath tub from which men drank champagne at a party given by Earl Carroll theatrical producer, was recorded in his trial for perjury Friday. Arthur F. Irwin a reporter for the Daily Mirror gave the testimony.

He said on the stand Friday that Carroll himself, ignited the spark lineup and gave the signal.

AGED LOCKTENDER LOSES MEMORY AS HE AWAITS BOATS

Police Take Amnesia Victim to Hospital Where He Is Recovering

While Herman Kemp, 77, 326 N. Morrison-st., was on duty as bridge-tender of the Oshkosh drawbridge Thursday night he became a temporary victim of amnesia. He was sitting in the bridgehouse in company with William Engel, locktender, when the latter noticed that Kemp was talking to himself in a queer manner. On questioning, Kemp declared that he did not know his whereabouts and that he was completely ignorant of his duties as bridge-tender. He looked at his coffee and lunch and asked what they were. When Engel answered, he tasted both. At Engel's request he stretched himself upon a couch to rest.

When a boat signaled Engel told Kemp to open the bridge while he attended to his locks. Still confused Kemp stood, while the boat signaled repeatedly. Upon the locktender's return, however, the bridge had been opened, although Kemp declared that he did not know how it was accomplished.

Later in the evening Jacob Grassl, also a locktender, stopped in to visit. Kemp did not recognize him. Engel told the bridge-tender to rest, in the morning he would recover his memory and turned out the light. Kemp awoke but was soon upon his feet again in the darkness. He appeared to be choking and put his hand to his throat.

In response to a telephone call, a police car took Kemp to St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Friday morning Kemp was reported by the physician in charge to be recovering his memory.

HOLMES TELLS WOMEN TO KEEP UP RUM FIGHT

Should Be Encouraged by Progress in Prohibition, W.
C. T. U. Told

"Although the prohibition law is not working as well as it should, dry leaders could feel encouraged at the progress made," Dr. J. A. Holmes, pastor of First Methodist church, said in an address to the Women's Christian Temperance union at a meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Carnross, 326 E. Alton-st. "If there is any laxity in the enforcement of this law," Dr. Holmes said, "the blame must be laid at our own doors, because it is up to the people through whose efforts this amendment was adopted to see that the law was enforced."

Dr. Holmes stated that it was his opinion that the dry law was not enforced as it should be in the city of Appleton, nor in the state of Wisconsin at large. However, he said Wisconsin is not the worst state in this respect in the union.

"The recent nomination of a wet candidate for senator of Pennsylvania over two dry senators," said Mr. Holmes, "is entirely the fault of the drys themselves. They should not have split the dry vote because by doing so they defeated themselves."

Dr. Holmes stated that all the recent agitation by the wets was merely bravado and a big show with the hope of winning enough votes to their side to change the present law. He stated that in his opinion the majority of the voting people of the country were in favor of the dry law.

He said it would take at least five more years of hard work on the part of prohibitionists to enforce the law as it should and to bring about the entire benefit of the law. He told of conditions in Appleton before the prohibition law and related many of his personal experiences in the fight against liquor.

A short business meeting was held before the parlor meeting at which the national membership campaign by W. C. T. U. unions was discussed. The contest will close June 16.

Two vocal solos, "The Song of the Robin" by Anna Case and "Trees" were sung by Miss Maude Harwood. She was accompanied by Mrs. G. A. Warner. A duet was sung by Miss Harwood and Mrs. Warner. Refreshments and a social hour followed the program Thursday. About 40 persons were present.

Demonstration of City Improvement

Justice Marvin B. Rosenberry, Wausau, president of the Wisconsin Conference of Social Work was authorized to name a committee to study the advisability of holding another better city contest in the state, at a meeting of the conference board Thursday in Milwaukee. Hugh G. Corbett, secretary of Appleton Chamber of Commerce, one of the vice presidents of the conference, attended the meeting.

In discussing the better cities contest movement the conference workers all felt that schedules used as criteria in judging cities of the state should be considerably revised and brought up to date.

Several of the representatives at the meeting, including Mr. Corbett, felt that the name "better city contest" was somewhat misleading and that a new name should be substituted for this intercommunity enterprise. Mr. Corbett suggested the name of "Community Activities contest." The matter of a name will be discussed by the committee to be appointed by Justice Rosenberry.

Aubrey Williams, executive secretary of the conference will complete

FIREMEN RAID RIVER FOR FISH FRY PROWENDER

Whether members of Appleton fire department are guests at a "fish fry" on Saturday will be determined by the luck of four of the organization who will go on a fishing trip to Lake Poygan Friday evening. Firemen have had "rough luck" the last few years but hope to break the spell this time. Members of the fishing crew will be Emerson Turney, Elmer Brockman, Edwin Kline and Nicholas Reider, Jr. Because this quartet has been "lost" so many times while on its fishing rambles, Captain Nicholas Reider, Sr., was prevailed upon to go along as chaperone.

The quartet will have plenty of "smokes" with which to pass away the time while waiting for bites, as Elmer Brockman, truckman on No. 3 and a member of the party, became the proud father of a son Thursday.

MILWAUKEAN CONDUCTS SALVATION ARMY SERVICE

Lieutenant Colonel Anderson of Milwaukee, divisional commander of the Salvation army will have charge of services Saturday and Sunday at the Salvation army meetings. Open air services will be held at 7:30 Saturday and Sunday on the corner of Appleton-st. and College-ave, and indoor services will commence at 8 o'clock at the army hall. The public is invited.

detailed reports of the judges' decisions in the recent better cities contest and send them to cities lacking these statements. Appleton has received complete reports on six of the schedules and partial reports on the remaining four.

FELZER ADMITS STEALING CAR

Pleads Guilty in Oshkosh
Court and Is Waiting for Sentence

Tony Felzer, arrested Tuesday evening by Appleton police for theft of an automobile coupe in Oshkosh last January, pleaded guilty in municipal court at Oshkosh Thursday and waived examinations. He will appear for sentence Thursday, May 27.

Felzer was arrested here by Detective John Duval and Carl Radtke, motorcycle officer, after he had left the coupe parked on W. College-ave. near Superior-st. during the greater part of Tuesday. Thinking the car to be abandoned, the officers investigated and found the engine number had been obliterated. Felzer was arrested at midnight. He stated that he had just returned from a hurried trip to Milwaukee. License plates on the coupe had been taken from Felzer's car which was demolished when he ran it into a quarry at Oshkosh.

REPTILES ENDURE FASTING

Observation of a large python in the Melbourne Zoo disclosed that the serpent fasted eighteen months, then took its food regularly. An iguana (lizard-like creature) fasted nine months, then greedily gobbled eight unfortunate sparrows, the last two being merely shaken and quickly engulfed. They could be heard chirping for a while after arrival at their destination.

20 HEROES GET RECOGNITION OF CARNEGIE FUND

Many Medals and Pensions Awarded at Spring Meeting of Commission

Pittsburgh—(P)—Five of the heroes recognized by the Carnegie Hero Fund commission at the spring meeting here lost their lives in the commission of heroic deeds. Fifteen other acts of heroism were cited, a bronze medal being awarded in each case.

The dependants of those who made the supreme sacrifice were awarded pensions aggregating $2,840 a year, while one was given $500 to be applied as the Commission sanctions. In addition, $1,600 was appropriated for educational purposes and $11,000 for other worthy purposes. In all 20 cases bronze medals were awarded.

Those who lost their lives were: Stanley C. Delaney, 16, student, died attempting to save a girl from drowning at Grassy Point, N. Y., July 22, 1924. The medal went to his father, Delbert A. Delaney, 121 Shippen St., Weehawken, N. J.

J. Stuart Kieffer, 1212 Miller Street, Utica, N. Y., died in an attempt to rescue a man from drowning at East Jordan, Mich., June 27, 1924; medal and $65 a month, with $5 additional monthly for each of three children to the widow.

E. Hale Elston, Rural route 8, Newton, Ill., died attempting to save a boy from drowning at Mason, Ill., Aug. 28, 1924; medal with $65 a month and $5 additional for each of three children to the widow.

Robert W. Gibson, Mason, Ill., postmaster, died attempting to rescue a man from drowning at Mason, Ill., Aug. 28, 1924; medal with $55 a month and $5 a month additional for each of five children to the widow.

One woman received recognition. She is Mrs. Helen Gertrude Dicker, thirty-five, 1515 North Belmont Avenue, Springfield, Ohio, dairy farmer. She was awarded a bronze medal for rescuing a farm hand from an enraged bull at Springfield, Jan. 19, 1922.

The other heroes are: Eddie G. Mathews, 124 West Elm street, Hillsboro, Tex., saved a woman and child from being killed by a train at Hillsboro, October 28, 1922.

S. Ellsworth Lewis, Upper Economy, Nova Scotia, Canada, farmer, saved a fellow farmer from drowning at Upper Economy, July 13, 1924.

William G. Wathen, Milford Station, Nova Scotia, Canada, saved a boy from drowning at Milford Station, June 9, 1922.

Jacob A. Kyser, Rural Route 2, Canastota, N. Y., saved a man from drowning at Sylvan Beach, N. Y., December 5, 1922.

John Fogelman, 313 East 86th street Brooklyn, N. Y., saved a girl, a woman and a man from drowning at Gloversville, N. Y., July 18, 1923.

Leslie Wiltshire, Hortonville, Nova Scotia, Canada, saved a boy from drowning at Avonport, N. S., July 18, 1924.

ADD 50 NEW HAZARDS TO ENGLISH GOLF LINK

St. Annes, England—(P)—Competitors in the open Golf Championship here in June will find the Old Links much changed as the addition of fifty new hazards have effected a great transformation.

The idea is to trap wayward tee shots and tighten up the putting greens. A high standard of golf will be necessary to return a score that will compare favorably with the standard scratch score of seventy-six.

The introduction of new hazards commences with the first hole, and at the third a lengthening cut has been done to 177 yards, and has been carefully bunkered. The approach to the fourth has been altered, and at the long fifth which was reconstructed last year, the bunkering has been improved. At the 13th, 14th, and 15th there have been wholesale changes, a most elaborate system of bunkers having been set at each hole.

ing at South Renova, Pa., December 2, 1924.

Henry Modentuehr, 313-A West Maine Street, Belleville, Ill., saved a woman from drowning at New Athens, Ill., July, 1923.

John T. Burlington, 2308 Harwood avenue, Rural Route 7, Richmond, Va., saved a child from being killed by an electric car at Phoebus, Va., July 28, 1921.

Edward V. Coleman, 335 Ashton street, Hazlewood, Pittsburgh, saved two children from being killed by a train at Ettna, Pa., March 6, 1925.

Samuel M. Fowler, Westcliffe, Colorado, helped to save a mine worker from suffocating at Bonanza, Colo., Aug. 14, 1923.

William W. Smith, Rural Route 1, Leav, Arkansas, helped in the rescue at Bonanza, Colo., with Fowler.

William A. Davidson, Orient Mine, Mineral Hot Springs, Colorado, took part in the rescue at Bonanza with Fowler and Smith.

Thomas C. Ritsen, Jr., Edna Mine No. 1, Adamsburg, Pa., fourteen, school boy, saved two girls from drowning at Adamsburg, July 13, 1925.

FAIR SETTLEMENT OF FRENCH DEBT

Secretary Mellon's analysis of the French Debt settlement should increase its favor with the senate. According to Mr. Mellon's figures we have made the best settlement with France of any of our debtors. She is to pay us a total of $6,847,000,000 over a period of 62 years, and the present value of these payments on a 4 1/4 per cent basis is over $2,000,000,000, or approximately 50 per cent of the debt funded. Italy's contract calls for but 26 per cent payment on this basis. The annual average payment required of France is equivalent to 7.33 per cent of the total budget expenditure, while that of Great Britain is about 4.6, Italy 5.17 and Belgium 3.5 per cent. Comparing the present value of the settlements with the sum of the total budget, the total foreign trade and the total national income for a year of each of these countries, the burden of the French settlement represents 15 per cent, the British 11.7 per cent, Belgium 7 per cent and the Italian 8.58.

This is prima facie evidence of a convincing nature that the government negotiated the French settlement on a basis of capacity to pay, and that it is, as Mr. Mellon says, "fair both to the American people and to the French people." Undoubtedly the government closed the transactions with an intelligent understanding of the financial condition of France and of all the facts touching upon an ethical disposition of the debt. The president has had the confidence of the commission and the commission of the president, and there is no reasonable doubt that the work performed by the commission was done in good faith, capably and ethically. The settlement represents the mature judgment of the administration, and this includes besides the president, one of the ablest secretaries of the treasury we have ever had, able experts on the commission and able collaborators in the senate. A handful of notoriety-seeking or self-seeking politicians propose to obstruct ratification. They should have even less standing in the case of France than they had in their efforts to defeat the other settlements.

PREMATURE ENTHUSIASM

The wets are very much elated over the nomination of William S. Vare for United States Senator on the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania. Vare ran on a platform favoring modification of the Volstead act. He was opposed by two dries, Senator Pepper and Governor Pinchot. We think the wets are premature in their enthusiasm. Mr. Vare's plurality is very much in the minority when his vote is placed against the total vote of his opponents, both avowed dries. Wet newspapers and wet politicians pointedly assert that the Pennsylvania election inaugurates a revolt against bone dry prohibition and that the triumph of the modification cause in the Pennsylvania primary "marks the turning point."

In the first place, no election is decided purely on an abstract issue. Candidates and their personalities have much to do with votes. Undoubtedly the prohibition issue predominated in the Pennsylvania election, and yet each one of the candidates received many thousands of votes from personal followers. In the second place, there is nothing in the election to indicate that Pennsylvania would vote wet. Against this assumption is the fact that the majority vote in the senatorial primary was a dry vote, and in addition there is the well known fact that rural Pennsylvania is overwhelmingly dry. We think that on a straight referendum Pennsylvania would vote heavily against modification.

The truth is that the so-called wet wave has been considerably exaggerated. The slightest evidence of wet sentiment is distorted and its importance over-estimated. There is, it is true, much wet sentiment in the large cities, but there are very few states in the Union, in our opinion, that would vote to modify the Volstead act. Those who live in the wet centers like New York city, Chicago, and in presumably wet states like Wisconsin, are not unlikely to be misled concerning public sentiment nationally. They may not see beyond the home horizon. While New York presumably would go wet it is by no means certain that New York state would. Conceding New York, New Jersey and Wisconsin to the wets, it would be a risky hazard to place much money on any other state voting against prohibition. We are certain that in central states like Ohio, Indiana and Michigan, the modification-ists would not have a chance. There is little sentiment in any of these states for a change. We think the same is true of Illinois outside of Chicago and of all of the other western states. It is a question whether even California, where the grape business has grown to larger proportions under the Volstead act than it was previously, would vote wet. The south, of course, is solidly dry, with the possible exception of Florida.

A few months ago it looked as though there was a formidable uprising against the Volstead act, but it has not gained much momentum. On the contrary, we should say it has lost ground. The wets are a long way from their initial goal of forcing the issue to a vote. We doubt if it plays the part in next fall's elections it was expected to. Certainly the wets cannot hope to control either house of congress at the election next fall. Most of the wet enthusiasm up to date has been manufactured. Certain politicians and the brewing interests are moving heaven and earth to stampede public opinion. Thus far they have not made much progress.

BANG IT, BABE!

A swarthy gentleman has stepped up to the plate with something in his eye that looks like trouble. He is Mr. George Herman Ruth, baseball's figure extraordinary.

In 1921 Ruth's bat taught 59 baseballs how to leave the park as the Norge left Kings Bay. With that feat under his belt the big fellow began to fatten a trifle, both around the waist and about the ears. Since that eventful year wise survivors have ungenerously disposed of him in all sorts of ash cans, junk piles and chairs on the front porches of the old people's homes.

Now Mr. Ruth has come forth with an eye that looks just like Casey's. It is not the eye of a man in a rocking chair. His home runs have passed the dozen mark. Much of the fat has gone from his waist and a few boners have helped greatly to free his ears of the old fatness, too.

It is the year that tells the story. For indeed Ruth has to play the national game this year or take a rocker. His five-year contract, at the noble figure of $52,000 a year, expires this season. Sixty homers not only would remove the shadow of the rocker but spell great joy at the pay window.

It would be fine to watch Babe's sixtieth homer sail gracefully over the garden wall. It is always fine to watch a fallen idol fight and win his lost estate. Bang it, Babe.

TODAY'S POEM

By HAL COCHRAN

I sometimes believe she belongs in a frame like a picture an artist would paint. Her features with beauty are always aflame, and her actions and accent are quaint.

Her fair golden tresses are bobbed up real neat and a ribbon is tied in a bow. In things that she does she is always discreet. She's the sweetest, I ever hope to know.

How often I've patted her soft little hand and how often she's got on my knee. I feel that she certainly must understand what she's constantly meaning to me.

Oh, no, she's not grown. She has only reached four. She's a wee little daughter, you see. I love her as such, and I love, what's more, 'cause she's also a sweetie to me.

Just to add a little spice to every day life, a steamer load of cinnamon arrived at New Orleans.

When son returns home with three of his four fingers he calls it good driving.

THE CLEANING OBSESSION

Dr. E. V. McCollum, professor of chemical hygiene in the Johns Hopkins school of hygiene, is not a physician. He is an authority on nutrition. His "The Newer Knowledge of Nutrition," a fine $3 book which the MacMillan company publishes at $2.25, places Professor McCollum in that class. Then just lately Professor McCollum and his associate, Professor Simmonds have privately published an excellent little book giving the essence or gist of the latest progress in the study of foods and nutrition, for the, in this day of fancy figures, extraordinary price of $1.50—the best 12 shillings' worth of practicable scientific information I have seen in a book in a month of Mondays.

McCollum is the scientific authority chiefly responsible for my deplorable renunciation of the tooth brush, although it is fair to say that the professor has never to my knowledge advised against brushing the teeth. Indeed, in this little book he and his associate have just published, "Food, Nutrition and Health," they say "Keeping the teeth clean, especially before their surfaces become injured by bacterial action, is of great importance in preserving them," and "mouth hygiene is of importance for general health as well as for preservation of the teeth." With these principles I heartily agree, only I am not sure that brushing the teeth has any real bearing on mouth hygiene. My own notion is that under our present mode of life there is only one way we can keep our teeth—keep 'em clean if possible but keep 'em anyway—and that is by regular visits to the dentist, at least every six months, that he may inspect, clean and if necessary repair the teeth. Keeping one's teeth bleached or white may or may not be desirable esthetically, but as a hygiene practice it has proved universally a failure; that is, it has not prevented the decay of the teeth. But in this little volume on "Food, Nutrition and Health," which these eminent Baltimore scientists have just issued, they carry the cleaning obsession to an extreme, it seems to me. In my own arguments about the preservation of the teeth I have maintained that if brushing is good for the teeth it should be equally good for the tonsils, and once I had a patient who insisted that he could not be really comfortable and well unless we washed out his stomach every morning—they took him away to the asylum eventually. Now McCollum and Simmonds tell the world that the habit of drinking salt water, two level teaspoonsful of common salt in a quart of water neither cold nor warm, is a good one. They assert that from two cups to a whole quart of this salt water may be taken about an hour before breakfast, and they wind up by assuring us that "by following this practice the intestine is washed out thoroughly at the beginning of each day."

McCollum and Simmonds are the highest authorities on nutrition and I follow them wherever they may lead in that field. They are not physicians, and in my judgment this internal cleaning they advocate is merely a morbid obsession.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Dark Room Practice

Our son has measles. Our old — I mean our regular family doctor (he is a rather young man) told me it is best to let all the sunshine there is into the child's sick room, provided the child's eyes are properly shaded from the sun. But our old family doctor is laid up with an injury and we have had to call in another—who is quite an elderly man. He says we must keep the room dark when the patient has measles. We don't know what to do. (Mrs. H. W. F.)

Answer—Do as your family doctor advises. The only reason for a dark room is to protect the patient's eyes from irritation by strong light. With measles, as a rule the eyes are somewhat inflamed for a few days. But the darkened room is a relic of the dark ages. Has the sunlight you can admit, but shade the patient's eyes as your doctor said. Sunlight chases disease germs and the gloom. Even though it is necessary to keep smoked glasses or a bandage on the patient's eyes, that is always preferable to a darkened room.

Women Like

The easy-disposal feature of this new hygienic help—no laundry, just discard

IN a new way, women now are freed of the disadvantages of old-time "sanitary pads." Protection is greater. The old embarrassment of disposal and laundry is avoided.

Get Kotex—8 in 10 better-class women have adopted it. Discards as easily as a piece of tissue. No laundry. No embarrassment.

It's five times as absorbent as ordinary cotton pads! You dine, dance, motor for hours in sheerest frocks without a second's doubt or fear.

It deodorizes, too. And thus ends ALL danger of offending. You ask for it at any drug or department store, without hesitancy, simply by saying "KOTEX."

Do as millions are doing. End old, insecure ways. Enjoy life every day. Package of twelve costs only a few cents.

Form New Class To Study Art

A new class of ten persons interested in art will start work next week on outdoor sketching under the direction of Mrs. Mark Catlin and will hold weekly sessions. Another class of 14 members has been working throughout the winter in oil and water colors and has completed a number of paintings. Both classes are sponsored by the art department of Appleton Women's club under the direction of Mrs. Catlin. An exhibit of work by the classes will be held at the end of the season at the women's club playhouse when prizes will be awarded for the best paintings and sketches. The prizes were donated by members of the art department and by several local people who are interested in the advancement of art in the community.

Mrs. Catlin has stated that anyone in Appleton or vicinity who is interested in drawing or painting may join a class. If enough school children show interest in art a children's class will be started Mrs. Catlin said.

Mrs. Catlin visited an exhibition of water colors from last year's water color section of the annual exhibition of the Cleveland Museum of Art which is being held at the Oshkosh Public Museum. Sawyer building at Oshkosh. The pictures will be on display for another week.

SISTER Mary's KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY
Breakfast—Grape fruit, cereal, thin cream, crisp brown toast, soft cooked eggs, crisp broiled bacon, milk, coffee. Luncheon—Asparagus, rhoticake, cottage cheese, whole wheat bread, rhubarb, bread pudding, milk tea. Dinner—Veal timbales, creamed carrots, head lettuce with Russian dressing, rice soufflé, graham rolls, milk, coffee.

The veal timbales are planned to use up some of the "left-over" of the roast suggested in the preceding menu. This is an interesting way to use up veal, chicken or ham. The meats can be used singly or in combination. A creamed vegetable of some sort prevents the meal from being too dry, serving as a sauce for the timbales as well as the vegetable of the dinner.

VEAL TIMBALES
One cup chopped cooked veal, 2 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons soft stale bread crumbs, 3-4 cup milk, 2 teaspoons minced parsley, 2 eggs, salt and pepper.

The bread must be stale for the crumbs but no crust should be used. Melt butter, stir in crumbs and milk and cook five minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from fire and add meat, salt and pepper, parsley and eggs slightly beaten. Mix thoroughly and turn into well-buttered individual molds. Fill molds about two-thirds full. Put into a pan of hot water, cover with heavy buttered paper and bake 25 minutes in a hot oven. Remove from molds to a hot platter, garnish with sprigs of parsley and serve.

Earthenware custard cups can be used perfectly well if no other molds are at hand.

The creamed carrots can be poured

PICK MAY 29 FOR 6TH ANNUAL POPPY DAY HERE

Legion and Auxiliary Want to Sell 3,000 Flowers Made by Veterans in Hospitals

Oney Johnston post of the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary are making plans for the sale of more than 3,000 artificial poppies, made by disabled veterans in Wisconsin hospitals, on Poppy Day, Saturday, May 29. This will be the sixth annual poppy day, legion officers said.

Plans are being made for the street sale before Memorial day to make it possible for those who wish to wear the little replica of the flowers that bloom in Flanders' field on Memorial day.

Women and girls of Appleton who can give time to sell the poppies on the streets on Saturday May 29 have been asked to call 1313 or 2865 R. Some 300,000 poppies were made by disabled veterans in hospitals this year and the flowers sold in Appleton and practically all cities of Wisconsin will be supplied from these sources.

Washington (AP)—The Federal census takers of 1920 were unable to discover any illiterates in the United States, if the National Illiteracy crusade, just organized here, had its way. Captained by William Allen White, the Kansas editor, the crusade plans to coordinate the activities of several organizations that have been seeking to stamp out illiteracy.

Mrs. Corn Wilson Stewart, national director of the group, who is in charge of the newly-opened headquarters here, and who has been active in educational work in the south, disclosed these findings:

There are 10,000 who cannot read or write in the city of Washington. Philadelphia has nearly 60,000 illiterates.

New York City has enough to make a city the size of Denver. Pennsylvania has enough to populate two States the size of Wyoming.

Ohio has more native born white illiterates than has the state of Mississippi.

There are many counties in the United States where twenty-five to thirty per cent of the people are unable to read and write and some counties where forty to fifty per cent are illiterate.

Five million men and women in this country have completely missed school.

The lead pencil business would be increased $3,000,000 annually, by the wiping out of illiteracy.

"More can be done during the next five years in eliminating illiteracy than has been done in any fifty years before," said Mrs. Stewart. "Many states and communities are now waging a war against illiteracy, and they are determined that the Federal census takers of 1930 shall not find one in their neighborhood who cannot read or write. They feel that illiteracy is a disgrace."

"The slow processes of the public and private schools cannot cope unaided with illiteracy. These schools have done their best but 5,000,000 men and women in the United States have missed them, and must now be campaigned into school. Our program is to put the fight into every section of the United States. We will help where existing organizations or the school authorities are attacking adult illiteracy, and where the campaign has not penetrated, we shall aid the local and state forces to organize. We shall also organize work in the prisons and in addition make a vigorous campaign among the Indians."

BANKERS FORM CREW ON ALASKAN RAILROAD

Anchorage (AP)—Uncle Sam's Alaskan railroad is one where the principal members of the passenger crew are bankers.

The regular passenger train between Seward and Curry has the president of the First National Bank of Anchorage as its conductor, a director in the same bank acts on the right side of the cab, while a heavy stockholder in the same institution is fireman. A lesser stockholder places the steers for passengers to alight from the coaches.

The bank to which these railroaders are attached is controlled and financed almost exclusively by railroad employees, ranging from section men to high officials of the operating staff. Frank Knight, the president, is a veteran conductor who came to Alaska with the building of the railroad. Charles Matheson, director and heavy stockholder, is an old time engineer. He also came north with the railroad. There are more than 1,500 depositors in the bank which has a capital stock of $20,000 and approximately $600,000 in deposits.

ALL GUARD MEN CAN'T COMPETE IN FIELD MEETS

Must Be Members 60 Days and Have Attended at Least 60 Per Cent of Drills

Members of the Wisconsin National Guard who desire to participate in the annual competitive field meet at field camps of instruction this summer must be members of the organization which they represent at least 60 days before opening of the camp and must have attended not less than 60 per cent of the drills in that time, according to a letter on camp athletics received by Captain E. F. Grundeman, commanding officer of Co. D, 127th Infantry, from the state adjutant general's office. Certified lists of eligible competitors must be submitted to the field judge before the meet, the letter said.

All military exercises at the camp will be completed in the morning, leaving the afternoon free for athletics. Each unit will organize a baseball team, diamond ball team, track team and tug-of-war and bring uniforms for each sport with them. Evening entertainment will include wrestling, boxing, band concerts, singing, motion pictures and vaudeville. All companies have been urged to get out the talent in the organization, practice, and be ready to entertain when called on.

Each regiment will have its own ball fields and a schedule of elimination will be arranged in each to pick the regimental and camp champions in all athletic events. In baseball the best players from the companies will be chosen for the representative regiment team. Company teams will be awarded the winning regiment in baseball and the winning company in diamond ball and individuals will receive ribbons.

Each of the three regiments will be definitely responsible for a program of entertainment for one night, known as "stunt night." This will include musical, athletic and dancing stunts. A banner will be awarded the regiment presenting the best program. Opportunities also will be given for participation in volleyball, pushball and horseshoe pitching. The field day include all track and field events and a tug-of-war.

YOUR CAR SHOULD LAST 7.04 YEARS

Ann Arbor, Mich.—If you're an average driver, running an average automobile in an average way, you may expect your car to last an average of 7.04 years.

Which points to the fact that automobiles have been placed under the close scrutiny that equals the exact statistics insurance companies have about us humans.

Heretofore the method of estimating the life of a car was along somewhat of a hit-and-miss method. Now Prof. C. E. Griffin, of the University of Michigan, has more exact figures on automobiles than have ever before been compiled.

Griffin has applied actuarial methods to automotive statistics. He has given the automobile "population" a "specific death rate" and an "expectation of life," corresponding practically to those of our own lives. He has taken automobiles in Michigan on which to base his figures, over a number of years, and from these has estimated the number of cars that will "die" during this year and next.

Although he expects a loud uproar from proud car owners, he makes the startling announcement that the lowly Ford has quite a longer life than this average of 7.04 years. He didn't include the Ford in figuring the average because of the high production rate of Ford as against others. Figuring Fords in one class, and all the rest of the others, he came to almost similar "death curves."

From his statistics Griffin finds: That the expectation of life of cars in use December 31, 1924, was 5.07 years.

That the death rate of cars this year will be 1,710,000 plus 0.22 per cent of the 1925 additions for the entire country.

That the death rate of cars in 1927 will be 1,810,000 plus 0.22 per cent of the 1927 net additions and 2.05 per cent of the 1928 net additions.

That more than half the cars built in 1920 are still in operation.

VETS MUST APPLY FOR INSURANCE BEFORE JULY 2

Applications Cannot Be Approved After That Date, Bureau Announces

Any former service men of Outagamie-co who have not yet converted or reinstated their federal insurance should remember that applications cannot be completed and delivered to the veterans' bureau after July 2. Appleton officers of the American Legion have warned. An effort has been made by officers of the local post of the legion and the veterans of foreign wars to secure such readjustments and reinstatements but there may be some who have delayed.

There is at the present time approximately $100,000,000 worth of government insurance in force in Wisconsin. About forty per cent of this insurance is term insurance which must be converted before July 2. The total amount is carried by nearly 20,000 veterans.

An application for conversion, it is pointed out, included remittance sufficient to cover over at least one month's premium on the converted policy. An application for reinstatement of term insurance, which is one month's premium at the term rate, and at least one month's premium on the converted policy and also proof of insurability.

Attempted applications that are incomplete cannot be approved, nor can they be completed after July 2. As there is no authority for approving applications for conversion or application for reinstatement and conversion after that date, except those which are completed and mailed before that time.

DIVORCE RATE IS ONE SIXTH MARRIAGE RATE

Madison—(AP)—The divorce rate in Wisconsin last year was about one-sixth of the marriage rate, figures announced Wednesday by the department of commerce at Washington, D.C.

From statistics furnished by the state board of health, the federal department found that 16,094 marriages were performed in Wisconsin during 1925 and that 2,886 divorces were granted. On the basis of an estimated population of 2,845,888 on July 1, 1925, the marriage rate was 5.66 per 1,000 of population and the divorce rate was 84 hundredths.

While the total marriages were 182 more than 1924, or an increase of 1.1 per cent, the rate per 1,000 of estimated population was slightly less, the rate being 5.67 in 1924. Divorces in 1925 were 108 more than in 1924.

GATLEY TO TALK AT BANK MEETING

Local Clergyman Will Address Wisconsin Bankers Association Members

A Clergyman's View of Banking will be the subject of an address by the Rev. Henry S. Gatley, pastor of All Saint's Episcopal church of Appleton, before members of Group three of the Wisconsin bankers association at a banquet at Hotel Reliance, Fond du Lac, on May 27. The banquet will follow the business sessions which will be held during the day at Elk club.

This will be the annual meeting of Group three. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year. Present officers are F. J. Wolf, Fond du Lac, president; A. B. Minor, vice president; Sturgeon Ray, George F. Dawson, secretary treasurer. Brillon Hugo, Fellenbach, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' bank at Kaukauna, is a member of the nomination committee.

Some of the important speakers at the business sessions are: E. J. Perry, president of First National bank at Fond du Lac, who will give the opening address; F. J. Wolf, president of Group three and president of Citizens' State bank at Fond du Lac; L. A. Karel, president of Wisconsin State bankers association; Oscar H. Morris, secretary of the association of commerce at Milwaukee.

An increase of 4.6 per cent. The divorce rate in 1924 was 81 hundredths per 1,000 of population. The population on July 1, 1924, was estimated at 2,808,622.

THREE MILITARY GROUPS PLAN TO ENTERTAIN VETS

Will Motor to Soldiers Home at Waupaca on Sunday, May 30

Three Appleton military organizations will entertain war veterans at the Soldiers Home, Waupaca, on Sunday, May 30, according to plans completed Wednesday by Edward F. Mumm, director of the 120th Field Artillery band. Mr. Mumm returned Wednesday from Waupaca where he talked over the plans with Colonel John Turner, governor of the home. Oney Johnston post of the American Legion, Co. D, 125th Infantry, Wisconsin National Guard, and the artillery band will go to Waupaca in cars to entertain the veterans. Families of members of the organizations also will make the trip and baskets of food will be carried along. Boating

APPLETON STUDENT AT COLUMBUS IS HONORED

Clarence Weiss, a graduate of Appleton high school and now a student at Capital University at Columbus, O., was recently elected to the Exeter Dramatic club of that school. He played the leading role in "The Beauty and the Jacobin," one of the plays given this year by the club. He is vice president of the freshman class.

Mr. Weiss played an active part in fishing and other sports will entertain the Appleton visitors.

The band will play a concert in the afternoon with a number of soloists as the feature. Co. D will conduct a guard mount, and the flag will be lowered in military fashion with the band taking part. Legion members will present an entertainment. Colonel Hugh Tomeroy and Major Charles Green will accompany the Appleton delegation. A number of cars will be needed to carry some of the visitors to Waupaca and the three organizations are urging the public to help entertain veterans by loaning their cars. Car owners who will volunteer their machines for the Sunday drive are asked to get in touch with Mr. Mumm or call the editorial department of the Post-Crescent.

Explore Your Own Middle West

Pleasure places, wonderful scenery and unusual sights are within a short distance of your home—wherever you may happen to live in the Middle West. This great, rich section of our country has been unexploited, but no part of the world offers more to see and do.

Leave dull care behind and start out tomorrow in your car to explore your own country. Time? It doesn't matter. A day, a week, or a whole summer—it will be packed with pleasure. Money? It's not important. Camp beneath the stars, stop at rustic lodges, put up at smart hotels—as you wish.

Look over this short list. Check the things you've seen, and those you'd like to:

- 1—Wyandotte Cave, Crawford County, Indiana, the second largest cavern in the country. Eleven levels and a passage-way thirteen miles long. Near Corydon on State Highway No. 16.
- 2—Redwood Falls, a magnificent spectacle, in Ramsey State Park, Minnesota. Itasca Park Highway and State Highway No. 14.
- 3—Starved Rock, visited by Marquette and Joliet in 1673, the scene of the last stand of the Illinois Indians. A few miles from Ottawa, Illinois. State Highway No. 7.
- 4—Gorge of the Mississippi in Wisconsin with castellated heights of weathered limestone bearing a fantastic resemblance to fortresses of old. State Highway No. 35.
- 5—Mark Twain State Park in Monroe County, Missouri, on beautiful bluffs overlooking Salt River, where Samuel Clemens was born. Near Paris, State Highways No. 10 and 15.
- 6—Hutchinson, Kansas—a center of the salt industry and of an extensive strata of pure rock salt which is probably the largest in the world. Highways No. 59 and No. 32.
- 7—The Kildeer Mountains, the most beautiful of the scenic spots of North Dakota. Near the town of Kildeer on the Mandan-Kildeer and Denver-Esteven Highways.
- 8—Miles of shaded shoreline along the Lake in Michigan. State Highways No. 11 and No. 22.
- 9—Spearfish Canyon, with its sheer walls and tumbling waters, forty miles of exquisite beauty in South Dakota. Custer Battlefield Highway from Rapid City.
- 10—Effigy Indian mounds built in the shape of various animals. Several bird mounds that measure 150 feet from tip to tip of wing. North of McGregor, Iowa, on State Highways No. 13 and No. 19.

CAMPING SEASON OF 1926 TO BE BEST IN YEARS

John Pugh, Boys Work Secretary, Predicts Big Season Next Summer

The summer of 1926 promises to be the greatest camping season in years, according to John W. Pugh, boys work secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., who announced Tuesday that plans had been completed for the camp at Onaway Island, Waupaca, which will be operated by the Appleton association from July 1 to 15.

Onaway Island is located in Rainbow lake, one of the chain of lakes, and offers the finest facilities for a boys' camp. The local Y. M. C. A. has rented the island for two weeks and offers the opportunity for a camp trip this year to every boy in Appleton. Mr. Pugh will act as director of the camp and will have associated with him Robert Wood, Ole Jorgeson, H. F. Heilig and Armin Gerhart, besides a corps of older fellows. Every effort is being made to furnish the boys a real outing and a worth while trip.

All over the United States Mr. Pugh said, similar preparations are under way. Reviewing the camp situation as a whole he predicted that over 1,000,000 boys and girls would be in 6,000 camps this year under the directions of various organizations interested in building up the character of American youth.

The popularity of summer camps is steadily increasing, he declared. This is borne out in recent statements by both H. W. Gibson, of Boston, president of the National Camp Directors' association, and Arthur N. Cotton, of the Y. M. C. A. National council in New York, senior secretary of the association's work among boys in the United States.

Camping is already becoming a part of the educational movement. According to Mr. Pugh many teachers are taking up a study of camp leadership. Within the last ten years the number of boys in the association has quadrupled, it is said.

ORDERED TO ATTEND ARMY MUSIC SCHOOL

"Bird Houses And How To Build Them."

This is the name of a free book let which every bird lover should have.

These feathered friends make excellent neighbors. They are desirable about premises not only on account of their beauty and song, but because of their economic worth. All day long they will protect your trees, shrubs, and gardens from ruinous insects.

No attraction for birds is more effectual than a series of houses suited to the needs of the various kinds of birds.

These houses are not difficult to construct and are very inexpensive. Beautify your surroundings by erecting a number of them. Complete instructions are contained in an interesting booklet which this Bureau has for free distribution. Enclose a two cent stamp for return postage.

Frederic J. Haskin, Director,
The Appleton Post-Crescent,
Information Bureau,
Washington, D. C.

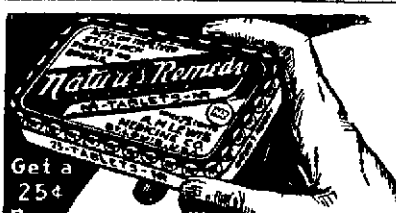

I enclose herewith six cents in stamps for return postage on a free copy of the BIRD HOUSE BOOKLET.

M'KINLEY HIGH CLASS COMPILES STUDENTS' BOOK

"Who's Who in M'Kinley" Is Title of Publication Issued by Ninth Grade

A splendid record, which includes a picture and brief summary of every student and teacher in McKinley junior high school, has been compiled into a book called "Who's Who in M'Kinley," by students of the Ninth grade English classes, working under the direction of Reta Verhulst, English teacher at the school. The entire book is the work of students, including the typed records of each person connected with the school and the snapshot of a student or teacher at the top of each page.

A page is devoted to every faculty member and student. At the top of the page appears the picture. The summary typed under the picture includes the name, date of birth, address, schools attended, present study program, favorite study, favorite amusement, activities, talents, interesting experience and plans for a life vocation of the student.

Every ninth grade English student wrote his or her own summary and in addition one or two summaries of seventh and eighth graders which were assigned. Five of the ninth grade students did the typing.

The last section is devoted to pictures and summaries of group activities such as the school orchestra, glee clubs and athletics groups.

tainers from Chicago have been engaged to furnish amusement in the palm gardens at the beach.

KAUKAUNA BOY SAYS 1ST MASS SUNDAY MORNING

GOVERNOR PICKS MAYOR SULLIVAN TO ATTEND MEET

Elaborate Welcome at St. Mary Church for Newly Ordained Priest

Will Represent State at National Farm School Conference

Kaukauna—The Rev. Francis Melchior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Melchior of this city was ordained to the priesthood along with fourteen other candidates at St. Francis cathedral, Green Bay at 8:30 Thursday morning by Bishop Paul P. Rhode. Several of the priests, including the Father Melchior, received their training for the priesthood at St. Francis seminary, Milwaukee. The priests who were ordained at Green Bay Thursday morning and the parishes at which they celebrate their first mass are: Rev. Melchior, St. Mary, at Kaukauna; Rev. Schmitz, at Appleton; Rev. Wagner at Clove; Rev. Thuecke at Charlesburg; Rev. Champagne at Marinette; Rev. Langefeld at Tarrytown; Rev. Groessel at Algoma and Rev. Francis Marmunowicz at Milwaukee.

Mayor Melchior will celebrate his first mass at 10 o'clock Sunday morning at St. Mary church. Monsignor P. J. Lachman, vicar general of the Green Bay diocese will be assistant priest and three of the newly ordained priests will act as deacon, sub-deacon and master of ceremonies. The Rev. G. Dagmann, S. J. Campbell college, will preach the sermon. Miss Margaret Muthig was chosen to act as bride to the new priest. She is to be assisted by Miss Vivian Gerend and Miss Carmen Stoeger.

The altar boys, the Catholic Knights of Wisconsin and the priests will form into a procession at the factory and march into church. Miss Jacob Stoeger will play "Avebury" on the organ while the procession is marching in. She will be accompanied by Edward Galmbacher on the violin. Mr. Galmbacher will accompany the organ through out the ceremony.

The altar boys, Knights and priests will form into a procession after the services and march out of the church. A banquet will be served in St. Mary hall after the services to all of the visiting clergy and relatives of Rev. Melchior.

A reception will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening and the following program will be adhered to:

Opening remarks by Rev. G. Ripp. Music by St. Mary school orchestra. Salute of St. Mary school to Father Melchior by George Kallhofer.

Song by St. Mary children's choir. Address by Ernest Landermann. Music by St. Mary orchestra.

A comical sketch by members of the Kaukauna Branch of the C. K. of W. Address and presentation of gifts from the Catholic Knights to Rev. Melchior by Peter Van Dyke, president of the Kaukauna branch of the Knights.

Song by choir. Recitations by students from St. Mary school.

Address by Mayor Sullivan. Address by Monsignor Lachman. Address by Father Melchior. Music by school orchestra.

GOVERNOR PICKS MAYOR SULLIVAN TO ATTEND MEET

Kaukauna—Mayor W. C. Sullivan has been appointed by Governor J. J. Blaine to represent the state of Wisconsin at the National Farm School conference to be held in New York starting June 2. The mayor has accepted the appointment of the governor and will leave for New York the last of May.

Arthur Capper, United States senator from Kansas, will preside over the meeting which has been called to consider plans by which boys from all over the country may attend the farm school at New York. The conference has the sanction of President Coolidge.

William N. Jardine, United States secretary of agriculture will be the principal speaker at the conference. Governors from all over the country will attend the meeting and it was because of a business arrangement that Governor Blaine could not attend and appointed Mayor Sullivan as his substitute.

CAST SELECTED FOR HIGH SCHOOL PLAY

Kaukauna—Characters for the Kaukauna high school senior class play were chosen after the tryouts Wednesday night in the high school. The play is a three act comedy, "Adam and Eva." The date is Tuesday, June 8.

Those who received parts were: "Julie," Dorothy Van Lieshout; "Clinton," Tom Darling; "Eva," Amanda Haid; "Adam," Walter Kilgas; "Aunt Abby," Lucille Lang; "Dr. Jack," Leone Stine; "Lord Gordon," Robert Radsch. The characters, Mr. King, Uncle Horace and Corintha, remain to be chosen. Miss Ruth Nemachek will have charge of producing the play. Stage manager is Roland Rader and his assistant is Emmet Roban. Bertha Kunze will be in charge of costumes.

TO LEAVE LOVING CUPS TO SCHOOL

BAND WILL PRESENT OPEN AIR CONCERT

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—The high school band will deliver an open air concert, its first since its organization about two years ago, in Memorial park, across from Elwood hotel Saturday evening. The concert, which will be under the direction of Alfred Schumann, high school musical instructor, will begin at 8 o'clock and the general public is invited.

TO LEAVE LOVING CUPS TO SCHOOL

Special to Post-Crescent
New London—The graduating class of 1926 will leave on the school one of the most fitting and attractive memorials ever donated to the alma mater by a senior class in the form of eight silver loving cups.

The proceeds of the class play which will be given at the Grand theatre Friday evening will be used for this purpose. It has always been customary for graduating classes here to leave a memorial to the school. The cups which will be left by this year's class are to be used as awards for first and second places in forensic work. They will be awarded in the two branches of forensic work which already are established, oratory and declamatory, and also for two new branches which will probably be started next year, extemporaneous reading and extemporaneous speaking.

The cups will be offered next year for the first time.

STAGE
SCREENMARY ASTOR IN A NEW CAREER
FILM

Mary Astor, First National featured actress, will be seen in the role of a frivolous bon-vivant who comes to her senses before the final reckoning in "High Steppers," an adaptation of the popular Sir Philip Gibbs novel, "Heirs Apparent," showing at the Elite Theatre Saturday and Sunday.

Misfit Astor's role in this picture is somewhat of a departure from her usual parts, which have been in the past, quiet dignity. The first episode, however, in "High Steppers" shows her ousted from college because of her alleged jollity. Lloyd Hughes plays opposite her.

Reformation comes to the madcap. Instead of high-stepping she learns to step on firm ground.

Sir Philip's story moves to a swift conclusion. The noted author sees in the hysteria that naturally follows a great war. He points out that salvation lies only in coolness and detachment from the furious pleasures that beset the modern family on all sides.

Dolores del Rio, beautiful Castilian actress, is cast in a "vamp" role. Others in the cast of "High Steppers" are Rita Carove, Edward Davis, John Stepping, Clarence Selwyn, Alec Francis, Emily Fitzroy and Margaret McWade.

"THE RAINMAKER"

Time was when the champions and near champions of the prize ring, race track and other branches of sport passed out of the picture when their day was done. Now, however, they pass into the picture!

This fact was clearly emphasized during the filming of "The Rainmaker," a current Paramount production, featuring William Collier, Jr., Ernest Torrence and Georgia Hale, showing tomorrow and Sunday at Fischers Appleton theatre.

One of the spectacular scenes in the picture is a thrilling handicap race. This was made at the famous Tanforan track just outside of San Francisco. The entire West was ransacked for present day and former jockeys, and the lineup, that faced the starter when the race was on included Charles Madoux, Jockey, Haeffle, Shorty Hall, Bill Hurley, Jockey Rice and Jockey Slaughter—all names to be conjured with a few years back in the records of the Sport of Kings.

Each of the jockeys was mounted on a real thoroughbred of the race tracks. Among the horses familiar to true followers were "Duc de Guse," "Harvest Fly," "Bill Render," "Deception" and "Blackburn."

"The Rainmaker" was adapted from Gerald Beaumont's Red Book Magazine story, "Heavenbent."

A big bill of added features including an Our Gang comedy, Aesop's Fables, and Topics of the Day will be shown.

KENNETH HARLAN AS SERVICE SPY IN NEW MELODRAMA

When "The Fighting Edge," the Warner Bros. Classic of the Screen, at the New Bijou theater today and Saturday brought to the screen the thrilling melodrama written by William McLeod Raine, and directed by Henry Lehman.

The story concerns the adventures of a secret service man set to capture a band of alien-smugglers on the Mexican border. Here he finds the thrills of his lifetime in a series of exciting fights with the smugglers and the romance of his lifetime in his love for a charming girl who has come to rescue her father from the smugglers.

Kenneth Harlan plays the hero, a Spanish-Irishman who in his woe combines the ardor of the two races and wins lovely Patsy Ruth

SNAKE KNOWS CAMOUFLAGE

The brown tree snake in Queensland knows, both defensive and offensive camouflage, as observed by a recent expeditionary party. The exhibition was given in the top of a casuarina tree. When the snake's enemy, the laughing jackass, came along, rather than be eaten, the snake raised its head a few inches and became rigid, imitating a broken branch. When the bird of prey had gone the snake set a bird trap by making a longer "stick" of itself and awaiting. It was a con-

BOARD STUMPED BY REFUSAL TO GIVE PARK AID

Commissioners Will Meet
Soon to Discuss Improvement Problem

What action, if any, will be taken by the park board to secure funds to carry out its plans for the improvement of Pierce park will be decided by the board at a meeting within a few days. Prof. O. P. Fairfield, chairman, will issue the call for the meeting shortly.

Since the common council killed the $50,000 bond issue which had been proposed to furnish the board with funds, board members are at a loss as to what to do.

The park board may, if it desires, certify into the tax levy a tax of 1 mill to secure funds necessary to improve parks, the city attorney informed the council Wednesday evening. This procedure probably will be discussed by the board at its next meeting. If the board chooses to take such action, it would mean a tax of approximately $15,000 more than the $15,000 already received by the board.

That the board is reluctant to secure money by this means was indicated by its members at an informal meeting with the council last Monday evening. The council was informed at that time that the initiative in raising money for parks should be made by the council, as the park board would be reluctant to certify additional taxes into the tax levy.

Members of the park board are Prof. O. P. Fairfield, chairman, J. A. Wood, secretary, J. L. Wolf, B. J. Zuehlke and C. D. Boyd.

16 GREEN BAY BOYS GUESTS OF "Y" CLUB

Sixteen members of the Big Ten Comrade club of the Green Bay Y. M. C. A., and George Miller, club leader, were guests of the Sophomore Triangle club of the local association Thursday evening. The Green Bay boys were entertained at a supper, program of games and at a business meeting of the Appleton club.

After the supper, Allyn Gage, president of the Appleton club, and Frederick Gage, president of the Green Bay club, outlined the work of their organizations in the last year. Four boys, Chester Thiede, Roy Marston, Volney Burges and Vincent Burges, were initiated into the Appleton club as part of the business meeting. Edward Blossman and Robert Matz of the Hi Y club presented part of the club's minstrel show. In an interclub indoor baseball game the Triangles won from their guests, 12 to 4. Pool, billiards and a swim in the pool completed the entertainment for the visitors.

WISCONSIN WEATHER

Cloudy and colder tonight, probably frost in lowlands of west and north portions; Saturday fair, warmer in west and north portions.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

A pronounced low pressure area over the northwest is moving over Wisconsin and displays considerable energy. It has caused rains over the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys and upper Lake region. It is followed by somewhat higher pressure and generally fair weather, which should spread over this section tonight and Saturday. The pressure is low in the far northwest, however, which favors mostly moderate temperatures in this section over a few days tonight, probably with unsettled weather again the forepart of next week.

FILE PAPERS FOR STATE OFFICES BEFORE JULY 27

May 27 Is First Day Nomination Papers May Be Circulated, Zimmerman Says

Madison—(P)—Candidates in the statewide primary in Wisconsin this year have from May 27 to July 27 for the circulation and filing of nomination petitions, Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman announced Friday.

The primary will be held on Sept. 7. Under the election laws, May 27 is the first day for circulating nomination papers, and July 27 is the last day for filing them with the secretary of state. Independent candidates have until October 2 to file nomination papers for places on the general election ballot in November.

The number of signatures required on the petitions for candidates for nomination for state officers and United States senators are: Democratic, 682 to 6,811; prohibition, 30 to 291; Republican, 3,117 to 31,161 and Socialist, 807 to 8,063. Independent candidates must have 1,000 signatures on their petitions. The number of signatures for party candidates must be at least 1 per cent of the vote for presidential electors in the last election in six counties and not more than ten per cent of the total vote.

Candidates for congressional offices must have signatures numbering from 2 to 10 per cent of the last gubernatorial vote in not less than half of the counties of their district and from two per cent to ten percent of the total vote. Candidates for the legislature are required to have a number equal to at least three per cent of the vote in each of one-sixth of the election precincts in their district, with from 3 to 10 per cent of the total party vote in the district.

Mr. Zimmerman has prepared tables showing the number of signatures required for the different parties in each district and county, which are to be sent to candidates.

MASONS ATTEND DEDICATION OF OSHKOSH TEMPLE

About 25 Appleton Masons motored to Oshkosh Thursday noon to attend the dedication of the new Oshkosh Masonic temple. The temple, recently completed, is said to be one of the finest Masonic lodge homes in the Middle west. The program opened with a huge parade through the business district of the city. The Knights Templar band of Milwaukee and the De Molay band of Oshkosh furnished music for the marchers.

The formal dedication service took place in the afternoon and was conducted by officers of the grand lodge of Wisconsin. A banquet was served in the new temple and the program was concluded with a dance in the evening. Representatives from Masonic lodges from all cities and towns in the Fox River valley were present at the ceremony.

SNOW TO SURF

Los Angeles—An annual snow-surf race is held from Lake Arrowhead to Newport-Balboa. The participants go through several snow stunts, then by auto to the sea and finally change their winter garb for bathing suits and dive from canoes. All contestants must carry full equipment from the time they start on the 5 1/2 mile jump to the time they reach the briny deep.

HOLY NAME MEN TREK TO NEENAH IN BIG PARADE

Procession Will Start at St. John Church and End at St. Patrick Grounds

Menasha—Committees in charge of the Holy Name society rally of the Green Bay diocese at Menasha Sunday, May 23, held a meeting at St. Mary school hall Thursday night.

The parade will be carried out as originally planned. At one time it was feared that the construction of the new bridge at Neenah would interfere with this part of the program, but the work has been postponed until next week.

Chief of Police James H. Lyman is marshal of the day and will have charge of the parade which will start at St. John church at 3 o'clock and march to Wisconsin-ave. Neenah, countermarching on Wisconsin-ave, and returning to St. Patrick church, where Anthony M. Patre of Chicago, a knight of St. George, will deliver an address, and where the Rt. Rev. Bishop Paul H. Rhode of Green Bay will conduct the benediction.

The morning program will include the blessing of the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary at St. Mary school grounds and pontifical high mass by Rt. Rev. Pennington Abbott of De Pere, and a sermon by Bishop Rhode. A business meeting of the delegates will be held at 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

WOODEN WARE NINE LOSES TO ASMTHS

Menasha—The McGillan-Smith company team of Menasha Industrial league won from Menasha Wooden Ware company nine Thursday night by a score of 7 to 4. The game was played at Recreation park and was umpired by Richard Tuchscherer.

APPLETON PEOPLE FORM FROG FARM CORPORATION

Menasha—Articles of incorporation for the Menasha Fish & Frog farm have been filed at the office of the register of deeds at Oshkosh. The articles empower the company to own and operate a fish and frog farm, own and operate an amusement park, a lunch room, to sell ice cream, gasoline, oil and automobile accessories and to build and operate pipe lines for water. The company is capitalized at $20,000. The articles are signed by Charles A. Gruenke, Mary Gruenke and E. A. Gruenke, all of Appleton.

THREE MENASHANS HELD AS RUM LAW VIOLATORS

Menasha—Charles Gothe, Greg Lenz and A. P. Storil of Menasha were arraigned in municipal court at Oshkosh Wednesday charged with violations of the state prohibition laws. Preliminary examinations in the three cases were set for 10 o'clock on May 25. Gothe was charged with a second offense and his bail was placed at $1,000. The bail of the other two was fixed at $500.

NEW OIL STATION IS OPENED AT MENASHA

Menasha—The new Andy Borenz 100 per cent oil station, as it will be known, opened for business Thursday. It consists of a filling station, automobile laundry and grease rack and one of the most modern plants of its kind on Fox river valley.

The office building which includes the ladies rest room and comfort station is of Dutch design and the architecture is new in this part of the state. A separate entrance leads to the rest room and comfort station which is open to the public.

There are four pumps to serve patrons and they are supplied by four underground tanks each with a capacity of 1,000 gallons. The auto laundry is supplied with the latest equipment for cleaning and waxing.

The contract for the grease racks was placed some time ago and will be installed within the next few days. The station has more than 6,000 square feet of concrete which will do away with crowding.

DISABLED SOLDIER GETS GOVERNMENT HELP

Menasha—Miss Edna Robertson, secretary of the Menasha chapter of the American Red Cross, has secured for a former Menasha service man a United States treasury check for $750.61, in addition to which he will receive compensation to the rate of $80 per month. The soldier is now in the government hospital at Milwaukee.

MOVIE DIRECTORS HAVE SHARE IN TEMPERAMENT

Hollywood, Calif., (AP)—Directors have their quota of temperament, like the actors in the motion picture industry. James Cruze surrendered to his by stuffing cotton in his ears.

The mufflers were not directed at the roar of cannon but to ward against the inaudible influence of violin and piano of an emotion-promoting orchestra.

The orchestra used universally in picture production, largely for love scenes, affects directors as well as actors. Cruze said he did not want the music to make him overlook defects in the scene.

FEAR GOLD TOOTH FAD MAY EFFECT CURRENCY

Kobe (AP)—Whenever a Japanese gets any money ahead he buys himself a gold tooth and cultivates a peculiar smile.

This illuminating and fascinating fashion is looked upon somewhat askance by the Kobe Chronicle, which declares that a prefectural investigation revealed that local dentists last year had used gold valued at 221,226 yen for decorating the teeth of customers.

A moment is under way to start a fashion in plain white teeth.

LEGAL NOTICES

STATE OF WISCONSIN, County Court, Outagamie County.
In the matter of the estate of Magdalena Foster, deceased. In probate. Pursuant to the order made in this matter by the county court for Outagamie county on the 7th day of May 1926.

Notice is hereby given that at a regular term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton in said county, on the first Tuesday, being the first day of June 1926, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard and considered the petition of Rudolph Forster for proof and probate of the alleged will and testament of Magdalena Foster late of the city of Appleton in said county, deceased, and for letters testamentary, or letters of administration with said will annexed, to be issued to Rudolph Forster, and to be given to a vote of the people. If we are going to have a garbage disposal plant we should have a system as good as the present times will provide.

1. The Ordinance does not provide for anything permanent in taking care of this garbage.
2. You have only taken care of hog garbage and made no provisions for any other garbage.
3. You are hauling garbage outside your corporate limits and may encounter obstacles.
4. The City should not be a party to any transactions which carries any chance of being objectionable to the state or adjoining district.
5. Our appropriation of $25,000.00 is not sufficient to put in and handle an up-to-date garbage plant.

Notice is hereby given that at a regular term of said court to be held at the court house in the city of Appleton in said county, on the first Tuesday, being the first day of June 1926, at the opening of the court on that day, or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard and considered the petition of Rudolph Forster for proof and probate of the alleged will and testament of Magdalena Foster late of the city of Appleton in said county, deceased, and for letters testamentary, or letters of administration with said will annexed, to be issued to Rudolph Forster, and to be given to a vote of the people. 6. I do not think the majority of people of this city want this kind of a plant.

7. Table garbage from hotels and restaurants is now collected by a private individual. This same party will collect from private families for 50c per month or $6.00 per year. There are about 300 families having this garbage collected at a cost of $180,000 per year. It would cost the city $8,000 to do this collecting.

8. At present time garbage that must be taken care of is being handled in a small cost. If this arrangement is abolished, and the garbage handled by the city we might find ourselves in a bad predicament, if we were stopped from hauling this garbage into the Town of Grand Chute.

I further object to the advertising for or purchase of equipment and entering into contract with anyone for the disposal of garbage, and the acceptance of report.

For the above reasons I am filing my veto to this ordinance and action thereon. (Signed) Albert C. Rule, Mayor.

Moved and seconded that the Mayor's veto be not sustained.

THE YELLOW STUB

By Ernest Lynn

BEGIN HERE TODAY

HENRY RAND, 55, a business man, is found murdered in a cheap hotel in Grafton. Police find a woman's handkerchief and the yellow stub of a theater ticket.

JIMMY RAND, his son, goes to Milwaukee, where the theater is. The stub is traced to OLGA MAYNARD, a cabaret singer.

Jimmy meets and falls in love with MARY LONKILL. Later he finds Olga. She faints at hearing she is wanted for murder. Mary, out with SAMUEL CHURCH, a wealthy lawyer, sees Jimmy lift Olga into a taxi and misunderstands.

Olga tells police the stub might have come into possession of a man who "picked her up" two nights before the murder.

Jimmy and Olga, on one night, get a swift glimpse of the man she says got the stub. Later they identify him by his police photo as IKE JENSEN.

Mary promises to marry Church, but later breaks the engagement.

Jimmy gets a phone call from Olga, saying she has found Jensen. He rushes to her apartment to find her gone. Her disappearance becomes a newspaper sensation.

Later, Jimmy accidentally sees KID DIVIS, a known intimate of Jensen, and trails him to a lonely house where he and Jensen are holding Olga prisoner.

Jimmy sneaks into the house. When Jensen goes upstairs to answer the phone, he hits Divis over the head with a broken andiroun, then rushes after Jensen.

In the fight that follows, Jensen crashes through the stair railing and breaks his neck. Jimmy takes Olga to a hospital, then goes to see LIEUTENANT O'DAY, his police friend, who shows him an important telegram.

Jimmy makes O'Day promise to "let me handle this thing in my own way."

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER LII

A side from being one of its wealthiest men, Samuel Church was one of Milwaukee's unexplained mysteries. For instance, it was hard for the average man in the street to understand why a bachelor should want an 18-room house, when something much smaller would have answered as well, without sacrifice of comfort or beautiful surroundings.

"Think of the money he squanders in upkeep," they often remarked. "A butler, a gardener, a cook, and Lord knows how many other servants. Personally, I think Sam Church just likes to show off."

Which may or may not have been true. It was certainly to be conceded that Sam Church loved—his ease and comfort and elegance, and it was not surprising that he should be fond of a certain amount of ostentation.

Another mystery was his sudden leap from the position of an obscure lawyer to that of one of the best known in the city and, indeed, in that part of the state. As in so often the case, his prominence came hard on the heels of his newly-acquired wealth.

One day he had been a fairly successful law practitioner, and the next thing you heard he had bought this mansion and was suddenly looked up to as one of the brightest legal lights.

Nevertheless, grudgingly they may have looked on Sam Church's affluence, people were free to admit that he was a hard worker. Rare indeed was the night when someone did not observe a late burning light in his library and remark, "Sam Church burning the midnight oil again. Think he'd take it easy, now he's got such a pile."

And this evening was no exception.

Of all the rooms in his house, Sam Church loved his library best. Here there was a broad fireplace, and a rare Italian walnut table, and easy leather-covered chairs, and cases of books, brave in their many-colored bindings.

He sat in his favorite chair before the table, the heavy bowl of his pipe almost reaching his chin, its curved stem gripped loosely in his teeth.

But Sam Church was not working; he was reading a newspaper.

From time to time he looked up, glanced irresolutely toward the telephone nearby, and turned back again to the print.

After a time he threw the paper down, puffed savagely on his pipe and turned a loose-leaf notebook on the table in front of him.

A quiet step in the wide doorway that opened living room into library failed to disturb him. The butler was very light on his feet.

Without looking up, Sam Church said, "Yes, Thorne."

But Thorne's low, unctuous voice did not answer him. The silence was disturbing. Church slowly raised his eyes and then gave a sudden start.

"Good evening," said Jimmy Rand. With admirable control, Church removed the pipe from his mouth and with both hands pushed himself back from the table.

"How did you get in here?" he asked coolly.

"The same way, I suppose, that most people get in—through the front door. How did you suppose?"

"But the butler, where—how?"

"Oh, your butler. Very fine butler you have, Church. Didn't want to let me in at all. I had to persuade him."

"Damn you!" cried Church hotly, his calm vanished in the face of the other's maddening coolness. "What do you want here?" His face was red, his voice loud and no longer under control.

His fingers twitched. "I'll ring for a servant and have you thrown out. Damn your impudence."

"Go ahead and ring, Church. I don't think anyone will answer. Rand's tone was still level, unconcerned. Then he said sharply, "Sit down, Church," and there was a rising, ominous note in his voice that caused the other man to stop dead still and stare.

"Go on, sit down," he reiterated. "If you don't, I may have to use this." From his hip pocket he drew a revolver, which he laid on the end of the table nearest him. Then, as Church slowly settled into his chair, Jimmy drew one for himself.

He said, leaning forward and fixing the other with an unblinking stare, "Church, I've got a long story to tell you tonight—and I've got something to settle with you." He continued, noting the swift blanching of Church's face. "First, there's the matter of Olga Maynard."

He paused, and at his next words sudden relief was stamped on Church's countenance.

"Church," he said, "you hounded that girl to death, didn't you? Because she defied you, you had her fired from every job she could find. Only a low dog would play a trick like that."

"Even if that were true," replied Church, who had regained much of his lost composure. "I can't see where it becomes your business."

"If that were all that I had to say I wouldn't be here, never fear. It became my business when you had me fired, didn't it?"

"What do you mean? You're crazy?"

"Listen, Church, save your breath for what you're going to tell me."

Church looked at him for a moment, then struck a sudden blow. "I don't know what you're talking about," he snarled. "You're crazy."

"Perhaps I am—but let me go on with my story. You had me fired, but I didn't leave town. And then you conceived the brilliant idea of writing me anonymous notes of warning. Usually they were delivered by your good friend Divis. Once he paid a little boy to leave one at my door."

"Never mind. Sit still," and Jimmy raised a hand to ward off the other's interruption. "Why would you believe it, Mr. Church? One night Mr. Divis, a little nettled that I wasn't paying much attention to his love letters, actually shot at me."

Church struggled angrily to his feet, red color once more flooding his cheeks. "This has gone far enough. I won't sit here and listen to you make mysterious allusions to things that don't concern me. I don't care if you were shot at. It's too bad he missed you."

"Indeed it was, from your standpoint. But the time for allusions is nearly over with now. I'm going to surprise you in a moment or two by coming right out with what the newspapers would call a startling disclosure. You read the newspapers, don't you? Of course. I see you have just laid one aside. Well, you will presently. Mr. Hilton, at the Q. & R. Railroad, admitted he fired me at your suggestion. Furthermore, that man, Porter at the laundry admits he was paid a hundred dollars to let me go. His stenographer told on him."

"But even that, Mr. Church, isn't all, and you know it."

"Well, hurry up. I've no time to waste sitting here listening to you."

"There's no hurry," Jimmy's voice was tantalizingly cool. "You're not going anywhere—not just yet, anyway," he added significantly.

"You young cub," Church sputtered, "I'll have you thrown out on your neck."

"You'll listen to me first," Jimmy looked straight into the other's eyes. "Why don't you call up Jensen or Kid Divis and see if you can get any help from them?" He saw every vestige of color recede from Church's face.

"I see you know the gentlemen," pursued Jimmy.

Church looked as if he had been struck a sudden blow. "I don't know what you're talking about," he snarled. "You're crazy."

"Perhaps I am—but let me go on with my story. You had me fired,

NIGHT LETTER FROM JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT

Had to send you another message tonight as I was so lonely. Am sending my lawyer, to confer with Karl and Paula Perier's representative tomorrow in the purchase of the pearls. Am mailing the Pittsburgh papers this morning. I hope that this is the last time we will be mentioned in regard to those ill-fated jewels. I hate to seem superstitious, but I will feel better when they no longer belong to you, besides, I am no longer getting tired of decorating the first page in the news, because of them. I cannot understand Syd's sudden move to leave this country forever. It looks as though he was running away from something. I do not know what I shall do without him, for we have been like Damon and Pythias ever since I knew what friendship meant. As you have been to me the epitome of womanhood, Syd, Carlton has been in my mind the representative of everything a man should be. I have often wished that our friends might have all of his virtues instead of any of my little vices. Has not heard from mother since she left. Am expecting a bombshell of some kind before long, for she is not wont to keep me in suspense for any length of time as to her activities. Tell Ruth if I did not love her so much I would hate her for keeping you from me, and that if I ever get you home again, you will have to stay with me as long as I shall live. Sometimes it seems to me, dearest, that most of our confidence, most of our tenderest love protestations and promises have been made by letter and that is not what it should be, you know. I want you here, dear. I want you right in my arms. I want to be able to press my lips to each blue-veined eyelid, shutting them softly over your beautiful eyes, and most of all, I want to kiss the lips that always draw my soul to them when I touch them.

Your adoring husband,
JACK.
Wire from Leslie Prescott to John Alden Prescott.
Leaving by first train for home. I see the little coral doodad is beginning to work. No woman on earth could resist your letter. Don't quite understand Syd although he always threatened to do something like this. Kiss the babies for me and tell them when they wake up in the morning mother will be bending over their bed. I love you, dear. You must know that always.
LESLIE.

Adventures Of The Twins

The Chimney Sweep and the Rag Man
The Twins and the little Rag-bag Whiffet, who had lost his shadow, left the fairy second-hand store behind the barn, and went on their travels. Suddenly they all stopped and stared very hard at something or someone who was coming down the road. "Can this be my shadow?" said the Whiffet anxiously. "It's certainly black enough!" But just then the black creature laughed and showed a row of white teeth. So they knew he was no shadow. It was the Chimney Sweep. "No, I'm not your shadow," he exclaimed. "I like meat and potatoes and pie, and when I'm washed I'm white. But say, haven't I seen you some place before?" "I don't know. I'm one of the Whiffets that lives in the rag-bag in the attic. My parents gave me my fortune in buttons and started me out in the world to improve my education. I lost my shadow first thing when I was crossing the stile," said the Whiffet. "Oh, ho! You should go to the Rag Man then," said the Chimney Sweep. "He knows all about rag-bag people and attic folk." "Why of course!" declared Nancy. "Come right along, Whiffet. We know where the Rag Man lives. Thank you, Chimney Sweep. I think you should have a button for being so kind." "Certainly," said the Whiffet, reaching into his pocket and giving the Sweep a shot button. "Thank you," said the Chimney Sweep. "Now his shadow will stay on. I lost the last button the day before yesterday down a chimney. I was cleaning. It fell through the stove pipe and into the soup, and I heard Mister Smith say he'd found a black bean in his soup at lunch time. I wonder what he'd have said if he'd found my shoe instead of a button." "I suppose he'd have said that he'd found a black marrow-bone," said Nick. They all laughed at this—all except the Whiffet, who was still too much worried about his shadow to smile. Then the Sweep trudged along his way, dragging his broom behind him, and the Twins and the poor little Whiffet went on their way toward the Rag Man's house. "Come in," said the Rag Man's poll parrot, when the door-bell rang. "The water's fine, ha, ha, ha!" he added when they had stepped inside. "Why, hello here!" cried the Rag Man in a jolly voice. "I was just going to take my horse and wagon and go out. What can I do for you, my friends?" "Did you see my shadow?" said the Whiffet. "I lost it crossing the stile." "Why, hello here!" cried the Rag Man as you are wearing the purple bombazine suit made out of the very same old purple bombazine skirt that came in the Smith's rag-bag. I suppose that is where you came from. Your shadow may have scampered back home to the Smith's house." "The Smith's!" shrieked the Whiffet. "Did you empty the Smith's rag bag, up in their attic? That rag-bag was where my father and mother kept house." "Oh, they're all right," said the Rag Man. "They moved into an old hat-box. They are very comfortable. That's all the news I have. I'm sorry but I didn't see your shadow anywhere, young fellow." So the Whiffet and the Twins had to keep on searching.

Piles Disappear

No Cutting or Salves Needed
External treatments seldom cure Piles.
Nor do surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby. The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead. To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it. J. S. Leonard, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Schlicht Bros. Co., who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer. adv.

PICK SOPHOMORE AS CHIEF EDITOR OF H. S. MAGAZINE

Janet Carncross Elected
Editor-in-chief of The Talisman

Janet Carncross, a sophomore at Appleton high school has been selected as next year's editor in chief of "The Talisman," weekly high school newspaper. Miss Carncross who has been managing editor of the paper this year, will succeed Carl Schiebler present editor-in-chief, who graduates in June. The position of managing editor will be filled by Martha Jentz, a senior next year. Miss Jentz will be succeeded as head of the copy desk by Louise Marston and Helen Werner, both juniors, who will hold the copy desk position jointly.

Carolyn Schaefer, '27, will retain her position as news director and Kathleen Conover, '27 will be re-elected editor, with Mary Schenck, '27 as assistant.

Francis Rooney, one of next year's seniors has been chosen as business manager to succeed Ione Steens, who will finish high school this year. Lillian Schroeder, '27 will be assistant business manager. Lois Kloehn and Alex Manier will be circulation manager and advertising manager, respectively. Green Purves will be assistant circulation manager.

Many students have been trying out for editorial work for next year's staff and the most competent candidates will be selected at the end of the month. The tryout periods end this week.

The last issue of "The Talisman" will appear next Tuesday and will be edited entirely by the student staff without faculty supervision.

16 Graduates Of U. W. Are College Presidents

Madison —(AP)— The University of Wisconsin, long celebrated for producing football mentors and athletic directors, is also in the forefront as a maker of college and university presidents.

Sixteen men whose alma mater is the Badger state university are today directing higher educational institutions in the United States and China.

Porter P. Butts, alumni recorder, disclosed. The institutions include universities, colleges, technical, agricultural and normal schools.

Illinois, Michigan, California, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Indiana, Kansas, Minnesota, Washington—all are indebted to the Badger university for their presidents of colleges, Mr. Butts asserted.

Dr. Frederick F. Hamilton, is the most recent addition to the coterie through his selection as president of Bradley Polytechnic Institute, Peoria, Ill. Dr. Hamilton was graduated from Wisconsin in 1906.

Ye Tsung Tsur, who was given the master of arts degree by the Wisconsin university in 1910 today heads Tsing Hua college at Peking, China. Wisconsin alumni with the distinction of directing large universities are Dr. David Kinley, of the University of Illinois, and Dr. Max Mason, who left a professorship at Wisconsin to become president of the University of Chicago. Kinley graduated in 1893 and Mason in '08.

Other Badger graduates who are presidents of colleges are Dr. Edward L. Hardy, 33, California State Teachers college, San Diego, Prof. W. O. Hotchkiss, '03, Michigan School of Mines, Houghton, Mich. Prof. John Wentworth Leedy, '16, Marion college, Marion, Ind., Prof. Francis Edwin Peterson, '16, Park Region college, Fergus Falls, Minn., Dr. Charles August Stoll, '09, Central Academy college, McPherson, Kansas.

The agricultural school of Connecticut, New Hampshire, and North Dakota are guided by men holding degrees from Wisconsin. They are Dr. Charles Lewis Beach, '06, Connecticut, Dr. John Lee Coulter, North Dakota, and Dr. Ralph Dorn Hetzel, of New Hampshire. Dr. Coulter received his doctor of philosophy degree in 1908 and Dr. Hetzel graduated in 1906.

Three normal schools in Wisconsin and one in Michigan and another in Washington are headed by Badger university graduates. The Wisconsin normal presidents are Asa M. Royce of Platteville, Harvey S. Schofield, Eau Claire and Jesse Hazen Ames, River Falls. The others are Prof. Charles McKenney, Michigan State Normal, Ypsilanti, Mich., and Prof. Alexander C. Roberts, Central State Normal school, Seattle, Wash.

STATE WEDDINGS

DICKVOSS-EICK

Forest Junction — Miss Serena Dickvoss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dickvoss, and Edgar Eick, of Seymour were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at the Evangelical church here. The Rev. H. A. Franke performed the ceremony.

The couple was attended by Emma Mielke and Harvey Dickvoss. A dinner was served to friends and relatives at the home of the brides' parents. The couple will make its home here.

DICKVOSS-EICK

Seymour — Miss Serena Dickvoss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Dickvoss, of Forest Junction and Edgar Eick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Erick, Seymour, were married at the Evangelical church, Forest Junction Wednesday, May 19. A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Eick will reside on a farm at Forest Junction.

Buying of automobiles on the installment plan has been introduced into the Netherlands East Indies, and is proving popular.

REELECT OFFICERS OF CHEESE FACTORY

Officers were reelected Wednesday evening at the semi-annual meeting of directors of the Springbrook Cheese factory in the town of Grand Chute. They are Clinton Curtis, treasurer, and Mrs. William Hosc, secretary. A chairman is elected at each meeting and George Krickberg served in that capacity Wednesday. Frank Schneider, cheesemaker, and B. S. O'Connell were chosen to take charge of the factory sales.

FATHER CLAIMS MAN ARRESTED FOR BEGGING

William Ludington, 30, Marshfield, was arrested Thursday by Patrolman Bliss Carnes for house to house begging. Complaint was made to the police department by a resident of E. Pacific st., and Ludington was taken into custody a few minutes later. Marshfield police were notified and they informed Ludington's father of his sons activities. The father arrived Friday morning and returned to Marshfield with Ludington after a heated bawling in the police station here.

BUCHANAN MAN GETS JAIL TERM ON LIQUOR COUNT

Second Bootlegger Fined $100 and Costs in Municipal Court

Two raids were made Thursday by Undersheriff Earl Schwartz and Edward T. Sullivan, state prohibition officer, after search warrants had been issued.

A small still, three barrels of mash and a gallon of liquor were found in the home of David LaRue, Little Chute. Appearing in municipal court Friday morning, LaRue pleaded guilty before Judge Theodore Berg, who imposed a fine of $100 and costs with the alternative of 30 days in jail. Mrs. LaRue, wife of the defendant, offered to plead guilty in LaRue's place, as she stated that she had been most active in the manufacture of the illicit liquor. The fine was paid by Mrs. LaRue later in the morning. After LaRue protested that he would have to serve the jail sentence because he did not have the money to pay.

Two bottles of illicit liquor were found by the officers at the soft drink saloon of Ernest VanSerke at Little Chicago, in the town of Buchanan. VanSerke has been operating the place for about a week when the raid was made. He pleaded guilty in municipal court and was fined $100 and costs with the alternative of 30 days in jail. As VanSerke declared himself unable to pay the fine, he will serve the jail term.

SEARCH ILLINOIS FOR ABE'S MISSING LETTER

Springfield, Ill.—(P)—Search is being made in Illinois Lincoln collections for a letter written by Lincoln when he was postmaster at New Salem, Illinois.

Postmaster General New asked the Illinois Historical Society for the location of Lincoln collections with a view of recovering the letter taken from the post office archives at Washington.

In 1856, Lincoln wrote the postmaster general and returned 25 cents which he said was the balance due to the government. Mr. New's letter to the historical library here told of elderly attaches of his office who remembered the existence of the letter in the files many years ago, but that it had disappeared within the last twenty years.

The library here contains only two letters written by Lincoln while he was a resident of New Salem. The first, which was written to "Messrs. Blair and Rives," publishers of an early journal while he was postmaster, reads as follows:

"New Salem, Illinois,
November 3, 1835.

"Messrs.—Your subscriber at this place is dead and no person takes the papers from this office.

"Respectfully,
"A. Lincoln."

The second, written about the same time to "Len Davis, Esq.," said:

"Dear Sir:

"You will confer a favor on me by examining the record kept by the old state recorder and ascertaining whether a deed for the Northwest quarter in section 21 in town 10, North range, 5 west in the county tract made by William Trent and Michael McDermian, has ever been recorded in that office and if so whether the record shows that the land has been transferred by McDermian and if it does, who is the present owner under him. Also please to give me all the information in your office regarding the sale of said land for taxes and who is the present owner of the tax title.

DARE-DEVIL DEPENDS ON NERVE TO FINISH RUN

his trip by a minute so if you want to see the finish he on hand on S. Appleton-st at that time.

Smith was refreshed and strengthened Thursday afternoon by a chiropractic adjustment by J. C. Panneck, and a shave, shampoo, massage and other service by Herman Behnke from the Zimmerman barber shop.

Smith was quite chipper after Panneck finished with his adjustment and he smelled like a perfumery after his facial treatment. Singular service will be given Smith Friday and Saturday to "pep him up" for the finish of his drive.

Quite a number of people have made preparations to be at the De Bauser filling stations in Appleton at 3 and 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and at the Borens station in Menasha at 2 o'clock to watch Smith load-up with gasoline. He will take gasoline the three times so that people will have a chance to see how fuel is "taken on the fly."

Dozens of automobile drivers will follow Smith the last few hours of his drive and these drivers are requested to use consideration. They should remember that Smith is extremely tired and any interference with him or unnecessary blowing of horns to attract his attention will add to the strain, possibly forcing him to quit before the end of the 102 hours.

HOUSE RETURNS HAUGEN BILL TO COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(P)—By a vote of 201 to 132 the house Friday decided to vote immediately on a motion to send the Haugen farm relief bill back to the agriculture committee. It upheld the chair in ruling that a recommittal motion by Representative Madden, Republican, Illinois, was in order, and a vote on that motion was ordered.

While the house was in the midst of its noisy quarrel, Senator Gougeon, Republican, Idaho, took the floor in the senate and bluntly informed his colleagues that if the Haugen bill with its price stabilization provisions were killed the fight for such legislation would be renewed in some other form.

Representative Madden's effort to put forth the Haugen bill came out of the way was supported by Representatives Tison of Connecticut, the Republican leader, and Chairman Snell of the rules committee.

Soil, Sunshine and Sugar

FEW people know that sugar varies greatly in sweetness. To most of us sugar is sugar. The sweetest, finest sugar in the world comes from Cuba. There the sunshine and soil combine to give to the sugar cane, a high saccharine content.

Fine pastry cooks favor Cuban sugar because it provides just the right sweetening quality without too much quantity. That too, is the reason why it is used in Quality Cookies.

BLUES, RIPON BATTLE FOR TRACK TITLE SATURDAY

FIRST ANNUAL W-I CONTESTS STAGED HERE

Lake Forest, Carroll, Lawrence, Ripon In Important Quadrangular Battle

One of the most desperate fights for state title honors ever staged in a Badger college track and field meet is scheduled for George A. Whitins Athletic field Saturday afternoon when the first annual Wisconsin-Indiana Intercollegiate conference meet is held. Ripon and Lawrence, rivals since they were founded, are the favorites with Carroll next in line and Lake Forest bringing up the rear. The Blue and Red hosts evened matched with the Doehlingmen having the slight shade. However, Lawrence has a well-balanced squad and is liable to take a third place point here and there that may tip the evenly balanced scales just slightly in their direction. Last year, the relay decided a tough battle between the two schools, but Sorenson, star miler, now out of school, gave the Blues a chance by winning his event after they were behind.

Then Carroll is figured on to spoil the chances of either Ripon or Lawrence by cutting in on the favorite events of one of the teams. Carroll has a scrappy squad always liable to upset well-planned dope. Lake Forest is figured to take about eight points the mile run being figured as the only possible first for this squad. Seating, a crack distance man will run this mile. Recently, he took the only first for his squad against Lawrence in a dual meet.

Lawrence's entry list will include Stair, Nobles and the Hyde twins in the dashes; the Hydes, Beyer and Rohan in the hurdles; Manning Jones, Humphrey, Fischel and the Hydes in the 440 and half-mile; Kingsbury, Purvis and Pitter in the longer races. Nason, Stair, Van Winters and McConnell in the jumps, and Heldeman, Artz and Hinkle in the weights.

The big contests of the day are expected in the dashes where Stacey of Carroll, Meyer of Ripon and Stair are the rivals and in the 440 where Blahnik, Carroll, star, meets the Hyde twins. In the hurdles and jumps and weights, Ripon and Lawrence will be the big opponents with Lomas of Carroll cutting in on the low sticks and Dugan in the jumps.

YANKS TAKE 9TH IN ROW AS BABE GETS NUMBER 15

Lead A. L. by Five Full Games and Tie Year's Win Streak; Reds Beat Dodgers

Chicago — (AP) — Five full games ahead of Cleveland, its nearest rival after a string of nine straight victories and fifteen home runs for Babe Ruth, the New York Yankees are joyful.

Thursday they defeated the St. Louis Browns on six hits, but two of them were crashes to the bleachers by Ruth and Pat Collins. A similar belt by George Sisler, put his team in the lead for a couple of innings. The final verdict was 5 to 4.

Harris pitched well behind a heavy barrage from the bats of the Philadelphia Athletics and turned back Cleveland, 10 to 2. Gordon Cochrane inserted a home run. The Indians made only six hits off the big right hander.

Detroit battered Stanley Coveleskie for 10 hits in five innings and eked out a 6 to 5 victory over Washington. Each side employed three pitchers.

There was a slugfest at Boston where Chicago downed the Red Sox, 13 to 4. Eddie Collins and Earl Sheely had perfect days at bat. Sheely getting three doubles. Mostil also registered a brace of doubles. 18 safe blows being made off four Boston hurlers.

Brooklyn dropped a notch in the National League with a setback at the hands of the circuit leading Cincinnati club, 7 to 2. Bob McGraw proved no puzzle for the Reds. Bressler leading the attack with a triple, double, and single. The defeat put the Dodgers in third place.

Pittsburgh lost to the struggling Giants, 5 to 4, a ninth-inning rally falling short. McGraw shifted his batting order.

Vic Keene of the St. Louis Cardinals won his sixth game of the season, by holding the Phillies to five hits and one run. His mates scored four times off the pitching of Knight and Ulrich. Rogers Hornsby, who was spiked in Wednesday's game was back in the lineup but failed to hit safely.

Charley Root served a good game for the Chicago Cubs and downed the Boston Braves, 8 to 4. Freigau of Chicago poled a homer.

PAPER SQUAD OPENS SEASON WITH NEENAH

The Fox River Paper Co. baseball team, one of the strongest industrial squads in the valley, has reorganized for the summer and will play its first game Saturday afternoon at Brandt park with the Collocation Products Co., strong Neenah industrial squad, as its opponent. The Papermakers desire to schedule Saturday games for the season. Managers are requested to write Manager, Fox River Paper Co., baseball team, or call 42. Many of the Papermaker players are adding the Appleton team of the valley loop this year.

GORGEOUS GEORGES IN NEW YORK MITT BATTLE

New York — (AP) — Handsome Georges Carpentier of France Friday night makes another effort in the ring, the former light heavyweight champion of the world, veteran of the world war, who has been a pugilist ever since he was 12 years old, will tackle Sailor Eddie Huffman of the Pacific coast in a ten-round contest at Madison Square Garden.

Georges is 32 years old. In all of his great battles he has given victory to opponents. Four times he has beaten and only once has he been victorious. That was against Battling Levinsky.

main encounter, Harry Kahn of Milwaukee and Jimmy Ryan of Des Moines will exhibit their stuff.

Dame Rumor now has it that Tom Johnson may not pull stakes from Marinette high school after all. The Northerners coach, it was understood, had already accepted another offer. Marinette will be lucky if Johnson is retained because he is as good a coach there as in the state scholastic circles.

HELPFUL HINTS TO GOLFING STARS

FRANCIS OUMET—USE YOUR INDIVIDUALITY. To my mind a golfing instructor should build up that which a pupil shows him and not tear it apart with a view toward trying to do something which, because it is unnatural, is going to be hard to do. It is, of course, a splendid thing to imitate, but if the imitation is not anything like the real thing it is better not to imitate.

Golf champions are champions because they have watched others and have carefully developed a game they have found to be the best for them. There is always a bit of individuality about champions in all sports and probably more so in golf than other games. Not one of the top notchers swings the same as another, yet there is a similarity that comes to all if the foundation is being built carefully.

Chick Evans; Bobby Jones; Gene Sarazen and Jess Sweetwater play golf in entirely different ways. Would these athletes be the same drawing cards they are if they all performed in identically the same way? I think not. Each one has his own peculiarities which makes his work appeal to the spectator.

TOPS MOUND AGAINST NEENAH

HARM TORNOW

Harm Tornow, one of the mound mainstays of the 1925 Appleton team, and a star hurler in the industrial loops of the city for some years, will pitch his first game of the 1926 season against Art Larson's Neenah club at Neenah Sunday afternoon.

Cardinal Diamond Squad Shows Renewed Strength

Madison—Resting in second place and gradually climbing to the top rung, Coach Guy Lowman's Badgers baseball nine completed their third consecutive win in a like number of starts in a period of eight days. The drubbing handed the Illinois team came as a distinct surprise to the average fan.

The work of Jacobson on the mound, proves that Lowman now has two mound stars who are ready to take up the hurling burden that should carry the Cardinal to the Big Ten lead.

NEW SIX-SQUAD BASEBALL LOOP STARTS SUNDAY

Little Chute, Combined Locks, Freedom Represent County in Intercounty Loop

Six baseball teams of Outagamie and Brown counties will swing into action on Sunday with the opening game of the 1926 Intercounty Baseball League. The loop schedule was completed this week. Members of the loop are Combined Locks, Freedom and Little Chute in Outagamie and Onondaga, DePere and Wrightstown in Brown. The opening tilts send Onondaga to DePere, Little Chute to Wrightstown and the Combined Locks to Freedom.

The loop schedule for the season which ends Sept. 5, follows:

May 22—Onondaga at DePere; Little Chute at Wrightstown; Combined Locks at Freedom. May 30—Freedom at Little Chute; DePere at Combined Locks; Wrightstown at Onondaga. June 6—Little Chute at Combined Locks; Freedom at Onondaga; DePere at Wrightstown. June 13—Onondaga at Little Chute; DePere at Freedom; Combined Locks at Wrightstown. June 20—Onondaga at Combined Locks; Wrightstown at Freedom; Little Chute at DePere.

June 27—Wrightstown at Little Chute; Freedom at Combined Locks; DePere at Onondaga. July 4—Freedom at Little Chute; Wrightstown at Onondaga; Combined Locks at DePere. July 11—Combined Locks at Little Chute; Onondaga at Freedom; Wrightstown at DePere. July 18—Wrightstown at Combined Locks; Little Chute at Onondaga; Freedom at DePere. July 25—DePere at Little Chute; Combined Locks at Onondaga; Freedom at Wrightstown.

Aug. 1—Combined Locks at Freedom; Little Chute at Wrightstown; Onondaga at DePere. Aug. 8—DePere at Combined Locks; Little Chute at Freedom; Onondaga at Wrightstown. Aug. 15—Little Chute at Combined Locks; Freedom at Onondaga; DePere at Wrightstown. Aug. 22—Onondaga at Little Chute; DePere at Freedom; Combined Locks at Wrightstown. Aug. 29—Onondaga at Combined Locks; Wrightstown at Freedom; Little Chute at DePere. Sept. 5—Wrightstown at Little Chute; Freedom at DePere; Combined Locks at Onondaga.

Among the strange things in this life are bald barbers, skinny cooks and lazy married men.

TORNOW TO HURL AGAINST NEENAH

Veteran Appleton Hurler Picked to Show Wares at Neighboring City Sunday

Harm Tornow, one of Appleton's mound dependables in the Eastern Wisconsin ball loop last year, will occupy the hill when the local entry in the Fox River Valley loop invades Neenah Sunday afternoon for its second game of the year. Manager C. O. Baetz announced hurling choice Thursday, saying that he believed the local boy would be able to stop the Neenah sluggers. Dats Crowe, who hurled a six-hit game against Green Bay last Sunday and Refkko a southpaw, will be in reserve. Crowe may be called upon to strengthen the outfield, where two subs are being used at present because of the absence of Hullman or Courtney, or he may be used as a pinch hitter, because of his slugging ability. He hits well and has a good "eye," drawing two walks in three bats last Sunday. Refkko probably will hurl the third game of the season.

Neenah is making elaborate plans for the game with Appleton Sunday which opens the 1926 valley loop season in that city, according to Manager Arthur Larson. The Eagle Pile and Drum Corps will be at the park to open proceedings and Mayne Penhag of Neenah will have the "at bat" to Mayor Kemmel of Menasha. The Neenah lineup, subject to changes will consist of Nixon and Romeck, pitchers; Handker, catcher; Haase, first base; Kinkle, second base; Gullickson, shortstop; Krull, third base; Madison, left field; Burnside, center field; Dombroski, right field.

Ashman will be behind the loz with Bill Last and Brockhouse in reserve. The inner wall will be well taken care of by four vets in Radtke, C. Tornow and Schultz on the sacks and Goshu at short. In the outfield the veteran Priebe and two new recruits Van Wyck and Bentz, probably will start.

Several changes will be made in the park by the home team. The children's bleachers will be moved over next to the pop and ice cream booths so that they will not have to cross in front of the other spectators every few minutes. Another section of the stand up to the angle will be covered with roofing and the remainder of the outfield fence will be completed. All of this work will cost the club a large sum of money, but the management hopes to make it up by selling season tickets and the improvements will be good for several seasons, providing another cyclone does not come along.

Work on snap throws have occurred; the practices this week for the entire infield which has become proficient in shooting the ball to the spot from any position. This practice was held to improve the men in picking opponents off the sacks and holding them close. Son Tornow and Cave Radtke also worked out a system of by which the second-baseman can cover first in good style on hits to the first sacker, a trouble brought on by Sunday's game when Radtke had to race the runner to the sack at the chance of getting spiked.

CREW RACE HELD FOR PREP TRACK ATHLETES

High school athletes competing at the 22nd annual state interscholastic track meet will find a great bit of entertainment in a miniature regatta to be held on Lake Mendota on Saturday morning, May 29.

The crew staff has lined up a great three-cornered race that will bring together St. John's and Culver Military academies and the Junior varsity of the University of the Sacred Heart.

It is in good shape they will take up an oar and enter their fight. The military eight are rivals of old and both have met the eight of the University.

Star Badger Coaches Turn Pedagogue During Summer

Madison — (AP) — Wisconsin's two nationally known athletic coaches will forsake their jobs temporarily this summer to assume the role of pedagogues.

Both at home and abroad, George Little, athletic director and football mentor of the University of Wisconsin, and Dr. Walter E. Meanwell, basketball coach, will teach the subjects in which they specialize. They will impart to hundreds of their colleagues in the coaching profession and many embryonic directors, their knowledge of football and basketball.

They will collaborate in the short and long summer sessions in "intensive coaching" at the Badger state institution this summer. Coach Little will spend two weeks at LaCrosse Normal, and Dr. Meanwell will teach also at the University of Wisconsin Superior Normal and Notre Dame.

LOSES TITLE

Micky Walker, popular welterweight title holder, lost his crown to an "unknown" Thursday night, when a decision of judges gave Pete Latzo of Scranton, Pa., the "home town" battler, a victory. Latzo is little known outside of Scranton where he is the town mid idol. The defeat was a decided surprise to all concerned.

PETE LATZO COPS WALKER'S TITLE

Decision of Judges After Ref Says Draw Popular With Crowd; Stuns Mickey

Scranton, Pa.—Pete Latzo, a Scranton boy, late of the coal mines, took Mickey Walker's title of welterweight champion of the world, after a ten round battle here Thursday night. The decision went to Latzo on the decision of two judges. The referee voted a draw.

It was the most surprising outcome of a championship fight in many years. Walker was generally picked to win, as he easily beat this same Pete Latzo several years ago in a twelve round, no decision bout in New Jersey.

As the decision was announced by the simple expedient of the announcer swarming all over Latzo without offering any verbal explanation to the crowd; ten thousand lusty voices almost lifted the roof of the big armory where the fight was held.

Walker and his manager, Jack Kearns, and all of Walker's admirers in the crowd were simply stunned. They might have looked for the possibility of a draw, as the fight went into the later rounds, with Latzo fighting desperately, but the idea of an adverse decision probably never struck them.

Walker gasped as the crowd rose about him, whooping, at the announcer's pantomime, and he realized its import. Then he marched out of his corner as bravely as a soldier, shook the hand of the advancing and triumphant Latzo.

Walker took the earlier rounds, out-boxing and outpunching Latzo. The ex-coal miner came on, however, steadily, purposefully, and the judges evidently thought his rally won for him.

After the fight, Walker said he thought it had been very close, and he didn't think it should have been taken from him, but he immediately added that Latzo is a fine chap, and a good fighter, and that he only wanted to meet him again.

It was what the profession calls "a tough fight." It was a mauling, grueling tussle, with the men close together most of the way punching at each other's body. Latzo is an aggressive fellow, and Walker is the same type.

In dual clashes in years previous, Condition on the lake permitting, the race will be run off in the morning. However, Mendota may have a rough morning and will force the racers to be sent down the course at sunset.

Post-Crescent To Reward Experts And Duffers For Improving Their Games

Prizes Will Be Given Every Month for Biggest Decrease in Handicap

Golfers! Here's something for you to shoot at!

Prizes will be given each month during the golfing season by the Appleton Post-Crescent to the golfers of Butte des Morts and Riverview clubs who make the largest percentage reduction in their handicaps the previous months. Every golfer whose handicaps are determined the beginning of each month is eligible for the prizes for that month. Handicap rules of the clubs will govern and there are no strings attached to this unique offer.

Here's the way it works:

On June 1 the handicap committees of the two clubs will determine the handicaps of all the members on the basis of last year's scores and at least three 18 hole games played this year. Then on July 1 the handicaps again will be determined and the two golfers who make the largest percentage reduction in their handicaps in June will receive prizes. Handicaps will be fixed again on Aug. 1 and two more prizes will be given for the biggest golf game improvements during July. Prizes also will be offered on Sept. 1 for August improvement and on Oct. 1 for September play.

FAIR TO ALL

The Post-Crescent and officials of the golf clubs believe this prize offer gives every golfer an equal chance and the prizes are sufficient to induce any golfer try to improve his game so that he will have a chance. More definite rules governing the contest are being prepared and will be given the sports committees of the clubs. These rules will state definitely who is eligible to enter the contest, how eligibility is lost, will arrange for play-off of ties and will cover other items which must be considered in a prize offer of this kind.

And now here are the prizes:

July 1 (for June play)—First prize, one dozen golf balls; second prize, check for any iron club the golfer wants to fill out his collection.

Aug. 1 (for July play)—First prize, pair of golf shoes; second prize, pair of golf socks.

Sept. 1 (for August play) first prize, choice of either wooden club or golf bag; second prize, dozen 60 cent golf balls.

Oct. 1 (for September play) first prize, leather golf jacket; second prize, golf sweater.

Only golfers whose handicaps are determined on June 1 will be eligible to compete for the prizes given on July 1. No one will be permitted to enter the contest for any month unless he has a handicap based on the play of the previous month.

The handicaps as fixed by the handicap committee of the two clubs will be regarded as official and prizes will be computed from them.

Golfers of the two clubs are grouped for purposes of this contest. It is as possible for golfers in one club to win the prizes as it is for golfers in the other.

It is not necessary to make a formal entry in this contest. If your handicap is fixed as of June 1 you are automatically in the contest but you must observe the rules of the club and of the contest all during the month to be eligible for the prizes. These rules will be announced in a few days. In the meantime get busy and play the required number of games so that you can be given a handicap. You won't have a chance for the July 1 prize unless you get started on June 1.

FLYING FOXES WORRY TOWN
A colony of flying foxes, near at hand in the scrub that grows in a dense mass on the side of a mountain is one of the things that the people at Yeropon (Central Queensland) have to worry about. Frequently at nightfall the flying foxes rise and fly over the township, completely obscuring the sky, according to the residents there. There are thousands of the flyers in the air at once. Yet it is none of these facts that annoy the residents so much as the peculiarly disagreeable smell of the beasts.

JOHN J. LOUSON

At 65 most men are ready to retire in the shade of the grandstand and watch the younger fellows perform, but not so with John Louson, famous lacrosse player, and member of the Montreal A. A. He is still able to put up a nifty brand of pastime at this rather exciting French-Canadian game.

MALLORY STRAWS

THE HATS OF UNEXAMPLED SMARTNESS

What's Here In Straws Is What's What In Styles

THE latest braids, both "sennit" and "split". The newest shapes, daring and conservative. The sprucest bands, solid-colored and brightly or even brilliantly striped. On top of that, we offer two outstanding improvements possessed by no other hats in the world except Mallory Straws, the "Flexelnt" and "Cravenette".

"Look At Your Hat—Everyone Else Does"

Our Mallory "Flexelnt" Feature gives utmost pliability and unequalled comfort where your head meets your hat and where most straws bind and lose their shape.

Our Mallory "Cravenette" Processed Straws are proofed against wear and weather, an exclusive feature. Get one—it wears like two of the common kind.

SPIRITIST SAYS FREIMUTH WAS PUSHED IN RIVER
 Attempts to secure a diver to explore the bottom of the Wolf river, in an attempt to find the body of Herman Freimuth, well-to-do Shiocton farmer who disappeared Sunday evening were made Thursday and Friday by Sheriff Peter Schwartz. It is expected that a diver from Little Chute or from Manitowish will be engaged.

In response to a suggestion by a Shiocton woman, members of the Freimuth family contacted a Fond du Lac spiritualist by telephone. The spiritualist stated that Freimuth had been pushed from the bridge, near the cofferdam which surrounds it, and that the body is in the river only a short distance from where the missing man fell. She is said to have described the place exactly.

No trace of Mr. Freimuth has been found since Monday morning, when he disappeared as he and a small bloodspot were found on the railroad bridge near Shiocton.

It was necessary to perform an operation and remove the kidney.

WOMEN DRESS MORE SENSIBLY THAN MEN
 London.—(P)—Well-ventilated minds and bodies have done much to better the condition of modern woman and Dr. E. Graham Little, M. P., advises men to follow in their lead.

"Fashion has decreed that women shall be sensibly clad, and it is incontestable that women are nowadays more hygienically clothed than men, especially in the summer," said Dr. Little.

"The habits and costumes of women have immeasurably increased their mental and physical health. Never were the minds and bodies of women so thoroughly ventilated, and the benefit has been surprising."

GLADYS COOPER TELLS HER BEAUTY SECRETS
 London.—(P)—Gladys Cooper, who has for years been rated the most beautiful woman on the English stage, has issued a warning to Englishwomen that tea-drinking is the enemy of feminine beauty.

"Don't drink with your meals if you desire to retain your figure, and don't eat much bread, potatoes, butter or puddings," she warned. "You will find lots of substitutes for these fattening foods and the search for them is interesting. Drink lots of water but take it an hour before or an hour after eating. And get all the fresh air and exercise you possibly can. Health and beauty go hand in hand and no woman ever really beautiful who was not in perfect health."

BIRTHS

LEGAL NOTICES
 Joseph Klarner and Meta Klarner, his wife, Defendants.
 By virtue of and pursuant to a judgment of foreclosure duly rendered in the above entitled action and entered in the office of the Clerk of the Municipal Court in and for said county, on the 6th day of May A. D. 1925, the sheriff of said county was duly authorized and required to sell the mortgaged premises therein described to satisfy the amount due the plaintiffs under such judgment, together with interest and cost of sale as provided by law.

Now, therefore, I, Peter G. Schwartz, sheriff of said county, do hereby give notice that pursuant to said judgment of foreclosure, I will sell at public auction to the highest and best bidder at my office in the court house in the city of Appleton, Outagamie County, Wisconsin, on the 4th day of June A. D. 1926, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day the real estate and mortgaged premises directed by said judgment to be sold and therein described as follows:

"The Northwest quarter (NW 1/4) of Section thirty-six (36), Township twenty-third (23) North, of Range sixteen (16) East containing forty (40) acres, more or less, according to Government Survey, lots that piece sold for church purposes, Outagamie County, Wisconsin."

Terms of sale, Cash.

NEW YORK BOASTS 1,200 VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS
 While New York has made no formal claim to the title of The Educational Center of the country, there are some 1,200 schools for instruction in special trades and professions listed in its directories. These are additional to the fifteen universities and several hundred public and parochial graded schools.

One of the unique institutions is a school for barbers on a crowded downtown street. The students receive practical instruction on the faces and crania of the men who patronize the "flop houses." Shaves and haircuts are free.

SOCIAL WORKERS WILL MEET IN CLEVELAND
 Cleveland, O.—(P)—The National Conference of Social Work will bring upwards of 5,000 persons here the week of May 26-31.

All phases of social problems will be discussed. There will be 12 division sessions on child welfare, delinquents and correction, health, the family, industrial and economic problems, mental hygiene, organization of social workers, public officials and public administration, immigrants, professional standards, and education and educational publicity.

Leaders in social work from all parts of the United States and from many foreign countries will attend.

MENASHA COUPLE TO BE WEDDED IN RADIO SERVICE
 Wisconsin's first wedding over radio will take place at 8:15 next Monday evening at the Buchholz home on Madison St. The bride, Miss Merna Strader, 21, and John Dietz, 24, both of Menasha will be married at the old house on the Lake park reserve.

The wedding service will be read by a prominent Milwaukee judge over WIAB Milwaukee radio station. The wedding march will be played by Maxie's Wisconsin theatre symphony orchestra.

Loud speakers will be installed at several places in the Park reserve where the wedding is to take place, so the crowds hear the service. The radio over which the ceremony is to be performed has already been installed and tests will be made over the weekend to perfect the reception.

ELLINGTON FARMER RECOVERS AT HOSPITAL
 Harry Schroeder, 20 Ellington, who slipped while descending the stairs in his barn on the morning of Tuesday May 11 and fell against a corner of a concrete cow manger breaking his kidney in three places, is recovering at St. Elizabeth hospital and will be removed to his home within the next week.

It was necessary to perform an operation and remove the kidney.

STOCK PRICES HOLD STRENGTH
 Active Short Covering Takes Place in Motor Groups; Bear Pressure Ceases

New York.—(P)—Stock prices made further recovery at the opening of Friday's stock market. Active short covering again took place in the motor group in further reflection of the increase in the regular Hudson dividend, and the declaration of a 20 percent stock dividend. Initial gains of a point or so were recorded by United States steel common, National Biscuit and General Electric.

The cessation of bear pressure was accompanied by the appearance of strong buying support in several sections of the list with the oils, rails and merchandising stocks giving good demonstrations of group strength. Atlantic Refining quickly advanced 2 1/2 points to a new high for the year at 125 1/2 and Colorado Fuel and General Asphalt advanced a point or so. Gotham silk hosiery, Montgomery Ward and May department stores, up one to two points, were the strong spots in the merchandising group.

The unusually favorable character of the first April earnings statements stimulated the demand for the railroad stocks. "So" common advanced two points and "nickel plate" and Gulf Mobile and Northern one each. Pupont Savage Arms, Marine, Preferred and U. S. Industrial alcohol all recorded substantial gains. Another sharp recovery in French and Belgian francs, in sympathy with an earlier one in the London and Paris markets, featured the foreign exchange market. The demand rate on Paris advanced ten points to 312 1/2 cents, and on Brussels 47 points to 319 cents. Demand Sterling ruled steady around $4.88 1/16.

Favorable developments of the day included optimistic statements by the country's leading steel executives meeting here Friday, reports of increased April earnings by several important railroads and another advance in tin prices, all of which were used as a basis for constructive operations.

Union Pacific crossed 150 to the highest level of the year and gains of 1 to 2 points were recorded by Atchafalaya, New York Central, Lackawanna, Southern Pacific and other leading common steel shares. Advancing under the leadership of United States Steel which sold 1 1/2 points higher, Call money renewed at 3 1/4 per cent and then advanced to 4 1/4.

The closing was strong. Sales approximated 1,300,000 shares.

RURAL CHILDREN IN SEMI-FINAL SCHOOL CONTESTS

Youngsters Compete in Singing and Declamation in Five Centers

Semi-final county song and declamatory contests in Outagamie county
rural school will be held in five centers
Tuesday afternoon, May 25. Winners of first and second places in the town contests are eligible to compete in Tuesday's section contest. First place winners only will be permitted to compete in the county contest in Appleton on June 5.

Places of sectional contests Tuesday, and the towns to compete at each are:

Deer Creek high school—Deer
Creek, Bovina, Maple Creek and Maine.

Hortonville high school—Liberty,
Hortonville, Dale and Ellington.

Black Creek graded school—Cicero,
Seymour, Black Creek and Osborne.

Outagamie co. Normal school at Kaukauna—Onoda, Kaukauna, Freedom and Buchanan.

Appleton, at Wilson junior high school—Greenville, Center, Grand Chute, and Vandenbrook.

Ribbons will be awarded to winners of first, second and third places.

"If possible, the teacher should accompany her contestants to the sectional center," declared Superintendent
A. C. Meating. "School may be dismissed at noon in districts which have contestants in declamations or songs. Teachers have been requested to let us know not later than Monday
if they are unable to provide transportation for a contestant."

"Declamations will be limited to eight minutes. If too many song contestants appear, each will be limited to one stanza and a chorus, or two stanzas without the chorus. Separate places are to be assigned winners of songs, duets, and quartets."

INSPECT RURAL MAIL ROUTES

Postmaster and Assistant
Check Up Boxes, Road
Conditions and Mileage

The annual inspection of rural routes out of Appleton postoffice was started this week and will be completed before the end of the month.
H. J. Franck, assistant postmaster, will accompany carriers on their routes to examine boxes, their approaches and road conditions.

Postmaster William H. Zuehlke will make afternoon trips, accompanied by the carrier on each route, for the purpose of rechecking mileage to determine whether it coincides with that of the United States official descriptions, and to inspect roads generally.

"All owners of rural boxes are urged to comply with postal regulations by painting their boxes and posts by which they are supported names of the owners of the boxes and the box numbers should be painted on in black," declared Mr.
Franck. "We also urge that the approaches to the boxes be put into condition, where they have been neglected, to make the boxes easily accessible to rural carriers."

Mr. and Mrs. Moritz Heinemann left
Tuesday for a few days visit in St.
Louis.

GATLEY TO GIVE MEMORIAL TALK

All Saints Church Rector
Principal Speaker on Decoration Day Program

Appleton's Memorial day program will be held at Lawrence Memorial chapel, beginning at 1:30 o'clock
Monday afternoon, May 31, according to William H. Zuehlke, chairman of the program committee.

The Rev. Henry Gatley of All Saints
Episcopal church, will be the speaker of the day, while the Rev. F. C. Reuter of First English Lutheran church will be chaplain. Members of the program committee are still working on the program, which will be completed early next week. Mr. Zuehlke said.
